Salad

100 recipes for simple
salads & dressings

By Janneke Philippi

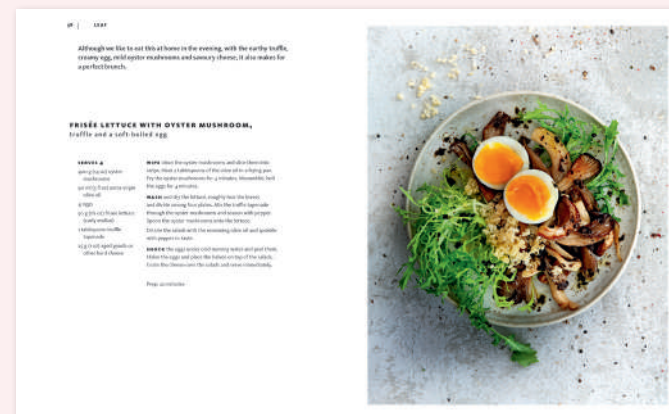

ISBN 9781922417619
On Sale 3 Feb 2022
£20 | 240 x 196mm | 256 pages
Full-colour | Hardcover | Food

Freshen up the table with bright and beautiful salads.

Salads are so versatile: healthy and inexpensive meals that can be thrown together using endless combinations of ingredients and a little creativity. Dressed up or pared back, a salad can be as simple as tossing a few green leaves in a bowl or served as a main meal packed with vegetables, grains or your choice of protein.

This cookbook is filled with light, everyday meals for all occasions, with dressings to mix and match, ideas for toppings, and simple breads and crackers to make from scratch. Filled with beautiful photography and suggestions to make each dish your own, Salad is a book about so much more than the humble lettuce.

Janneke Philippi is a recipe writer, food stylist and regular columnist for Delicious. She has written several cookbooks, with a focus on fresh, in-season ingredients.

Tokyo Up Late

Iconic recipes from the city that never sleeps

By Brendan Liew

ISBN 9781922417596
On Sale 14 April 2022
£20 | 240 x 200mm | 192 pages
Full-colour | Hardcover | Food

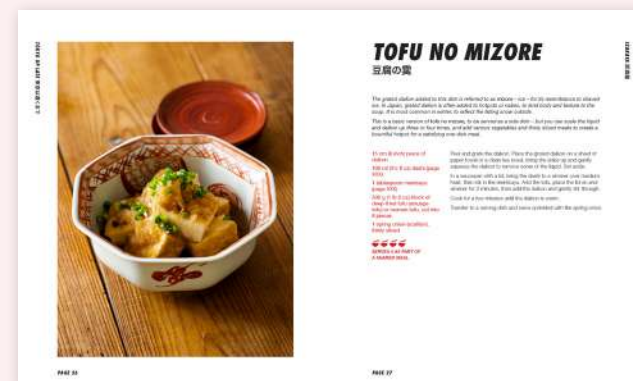

Eat the streets after midnight.

As the sun sets behind Mt Fuji, the neon lights of Tokyo flicker to life: izakayas, restaurants and bars fill; beer, umeshu, highballs, chūhai and sake are raised to cheers of 'kanpai!', and the scent and sounds of nightlife fill the air.

Tokyo's night scene – outside of the reserved, hallowed dining establishments – is fun, boisterous and lively. This is where locals shake off a long day, often staying out till the last trains leave the city.

Tokyo Up Late is your guide through the night, from the lamp-lit streets into paper menu plastered walls, where a Japanese smorgasbord is on offer: sake and beer snacks (think burdock chips and grilled ginkgo nuts) to sashimi and sake- or saikyo miso-grilled fish, karaage (fried chicken), yakitori and gyūsuji nikomi (beef tendon stew). Start with a beverage and head out to stall-lined alleyways, with bubbling pots of soy glaze, or the tachigui with their sushi and barbecued meat, and enjoy a final stop with a train station's udon or a libation at a tucked away bar till the wee hours.

Brendan Liew has spent extensive time in Japan, travelling and studying the culture and food. He's learnt the art of ramen making, worked at the three-Michelin-starred Nihonryori Ryugin in Roppongi, Tokyo and Hong Kong, and has worked at some of Melbourne, Australia's favourite restaurants.

The Vegan Cake Bible

Bake, build and decorate
spectacular vegan cakes

By Sara Kidd

ISBN 9781922417572

On Sale 14 April 2022

£26 | 270 x 200mm | 304 pages

Full-colour | Hardcover | Food

Rediscover the baking classics you love with this plant-based cake cookbook.

Is there anything as classic as a buttercream cake? Or anything that sounds less vegan friendly? A plant-based diet doesn't mean you have to abandon the birthday cakes of your childhood, however.

Vegan baking might sound overwhelming. Egg replacers? Plant-based decorations? Recreating that classic fluffiness without your tried-and-true ingredients? Fortunately, Sara Kidd has mastered recreating everyone's traditional, favourite cakes with eye-popping decorations and easy-to-follow recipes.

Whether it's an English Battenberg, a Mexican tres leches, a chocolate coffee torte or a caramel swirl with ganache, The Vegan Cake Bible has a recipe for every occasion (and even gluten free options). With trouble shooting and decorating tips, along with plenty of recipes for fillings and frosting, plant-based baking has never been as easy (or as covered in whipped cream).

Sara Kidd is rocking the vegan baking scene with her retro flare and eye-popping baking creations and recipes. She is an established name in vegan baking, writing for Vegan Food & Living UK and Nourish Mag AU while running baking workshops and hosting her new show, Vegan Around the World.

50 Easy Indian Curries

By Penny Chawla

ISBN 9781922417589
On Sale 3 March 2022
£15 | 230 x 190mm | 136 pages
Full-colour | Hardcover | Food

50 delicious curries from the kitchens across India.

Rightly adored by millions, curry is celebrated as the national dish in many countries. It's been adapted and adopted into homes and hearts around the world, but there's nowhere that does it like India.

Curry flavours change radically as you move around the country. From region to region, and household to the next, the dish transforms with new spices and ingredients. Garam masala – that unmistakable blend of cumin and coriander seeds, among other family secrets – is typical in the north. Lentil-lovers in southern India, meanwhile, create soups that are both spicy and sour, thanks to the tamarind fruit.

50 Easy Indian Curries travels through the country, sampling dishes from each region. No matter the recipe, though, one thing is guaranteed – you're going to need a bigger spice rack.

Self-identifying “curry queen” Penny Chawla is a food writer and chef based in Sydney, Australia.

The Feminist Film Guide

100 great films (that also pass the Bechdel test)

By Mallory Andrews

ISBN 9781922417664
On Sale 3 March 2022
£15 | 210 x 160mm | 208 pages
Full-colour | Hardcover | Film

Become a film buff and enjoy your night in with this guide to feminist-approved films.

In the wild west of streaming platforms, it's hard to check off every classic on the list, let alone every new film.

We've all fallen victim to scrolling through page after page on Netflix, confused and lost while the popcorn goes stale. To save us from indecision and getting tricked by flashy trailers, A Modern Movie Guide is here to guide us through the veritable jungle of cinema in the 21st century.

But these aren't just good films: they're Bechdel test approved. Yes: women talk to each other, about something other than men, in every one of these 100 movies. (We know we shouldn't still need this guide, but here we are.)

A curated selection of great modern films that span genres, this illustrated guide is the perfect gift for everyone from film buffs to your friends who can't stop arguing about which movie to watch.

Mallory Andrews is an established cultural critic and a founding member of the cléo editorial board.

We Heart Harry

50 reasons your dream boyfriend Harry Styles is perfection

By Billie Oliver

ISBN 9781922417657

On Sale 3 March 2022

£10 | 185 x 160mm | 104 pages

Full-colour | Hardcover | Pop culture

A love letter to Harry Styles, a pop star who's a sign of the times.

The world may have had to say goodbye to One Direction, but that hasn't stopped Harry Styles from stealing our hearts. From the swoop of his boy band bangs to his sheer Gucci look on the runway, the singer, actor and all-around dreamboat is a tour de force of a cultural icon, but our love is deeper than his great choices in fashion and his dulcet tones. Did you know that Shania Twain is one of his idols? That he's BFFs with Stevie Nicks? And that he's generous with his money, donating to a long list of charities?

This book is packed with 50 tidbits of Harry Styles trivia and some very serious collages. Billie can only pray that he one day sees it and graces her with an Instagram DM. (A girl can hope.)

Billie Oliver is a film critic and freelance journalist, based in Melbourne, Australia. She has previously published Chalamania, Keanu Forever and Let it Lizzo with Smith Street Books.
