SADDAM HUSSEIN
and the Crisis in the Gulf

by Judith Miller (of The New York Times) &
Laurie Mylroie (of Harvard University)

This authoritative study examines the personality and rise of the notorious Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein and the considerable threat he poses for the stability of the Middle East. The authors set the crisis against the backdrop of Arab political culture, imperial rivalry, and messianic ambition. 269 pp.
(Times Books)
ISBN: 0-8129-1921-1 $5.95 paper

SCREAM OF EAGLES

The Creation of Top Gun—And the U.S. Air Victory in Vietnam
by Robert K. Wilcox

In the early years of the Vietnam War, U.S. fighter pilots were losing the battle for the skies. Alarmed, the Navy formed a special school to teach advanced air combat maneuvers. Told through the words of the pilots themselves—in a narrative more gripping than any fiction—here is the first true-life story of the Top Gun school and its pilots.

ARAB AND JEW

Wounded Spirits in a Promised Land
by David K. Shipler (winner of the 1986 Pulitzer Prize)

The Jew, according to the Arab stereotype, is a brutal, violent coward; the Arab, to the prejudiced Jew, is a primitive creature of animal vengeance and cruel desires. Through the stories of individuals, Shipler discusses the far-ranging effects of the socio-economic differences and historical conflicts between Islam and Judaism.
