Borosilicate glass

We pay special attention to always use the best quality and environmentally friendly materials for our products. Adding glass bottles to our collection was challenging at first but with hard work and attention to details, we established an amazing production line of glass bottles, made locally in the Czech Republic and Italy, Europe.

Every detail is carefully thought through: the shape, the size and nevertheless the design. This way your glass EQUA bottle is suitable to be carried around wherever you go. Regardless of the fragility of the material, the bottle is strong, durable, and dishwasher safe.
