who's wearing MORPHEW

sustainable fashion

Sustainability is not a trend for us at Morpew, it is a lifestyle and life code. The Earth is all we have.

Sustainability in fashion is here to stay! Working with vintage materials since their beginning, Morpew has been an advocate of ethical design in today's fashion practices. We preserve even the smallest cuttings of antique textiles to use for both Morpew Collection and Atelier...nothing goes to waste!

responsibilities & revenue split

Morphew Retail Partnership Program

Morphew Retail Partners are responsible for:

- All operational costs
(ie: rent/lease, human resources, shipping, sales transactions, etc.)
- All shipping costs of product to and from your store
- Co-curation of the product and themes for each season
- All marketing materials and social media expansion

Commission: Determined in writing by both parties. Reach out for more information.
