

ELTON JOHN EYEWEAR

Lookbook 2024

Academy

Come with us back to Elton's childhood, where young Reginald Kenneth Dwight is proving to be a piano prodigy, earning a prestigious scholarship to the Royal Academy of Music in London.

The Academy Collection reflects the conventional styles of the day. Like Elton at the time, they are understated and contemporary. Discover classic designs with a modern vision for yourself.

Rock 'n' Roll

We all have our musical awakening; with Elton it was Rock and Roll. Leaving the academy far behind, the rebel had found his sound, making waves with session work and penning his own songs.

Bristling with independent spirit and a new found confidence, we enter the colourful, creative pop-culture of the Rock 'n' Roll Collection. Be bold in your self-expression and accessorise your inner rock rebel.

Fame & Fortune

Goodbye Pinner and Reginald Dwight! Hello Los Angeles! With a smash debut at the Troubadour Club and a cascade of hits and sell out tours – superstardom had arrived, and Elton's signature spectacles rose to new levels of showmanship.

With this collection, we capture the zeitgeist and energy of Elton's conquering glory. Embrace the magic with bigger, bolder designs and feel the power of putting you and your frames centre stage.

Reggie

“Reggie” is a nickname that was used for Elton John in his early years as a musician. His birth name is Reginald Kenneth Dwight, and he adopted the stage name Elton John in 1967. The Reggie is a classic oversized black plastic frame iconic for the ‘50’s era. Elton’s affinity for the Buddy Holly look is reflected in the silhouette with signature Elton John branding including the inside temple, temple metal end cap and classic E on the temple tip.

King

Little Richard, the true “King of Rock and Roll,” profoundly impacted Elton with his flamboyant style and exuberant piano prowess. Embrace the spirit of rock royalty with King. The King is a double-bridge metal frame that evokes the 1970s, with its platform shoes, big tunes and even bigger collars. A large size with demi-colour treatment on the eye front, the frame features the iconic E star temple tip mark and rose tint lenses.
