

Luxury Travel Designer Accepts Cryptocurrency as Payment for Professional Consulting

VIP Clients working with Cindy Girard have a new way to pay for consulting services!

SYLVAN LAKE, Alberta - May 1, 2023 - PRLog -- As a luxury travel designer who is always striving to provide exceptional service to my discerning clients, I am thrilled to announce that I am now accepting cryptocurrency as a form of payment for my professional consulting services. This includes my travel design, itinerary planning, project management and personalized recommendations for luxury travel experiences.

As the demand for cryptocurrency as a payment method continues to grow, I want to make it easy, and provide more options for my VIP clients who like to pay for services with their preferred digital currency.

Therefore, I am excited to accept Bitcoin, Ethereum, USDC, Litecoin, and Dogecoin as payment for my professional consulting services.

When you purchase my Personalized Travel Planning Pre-Paid Consulting Service package you now have the option to pay with cryptocurrency through my secure online platform. VIP Private clients can take advantage of this payment feature too, for the gratuity balance of professional consulting services provided.

My clients trust me to provide them with exclusive travel experiences and exceptional service, and I believe that accepting cryptocurrency as payment for my consulting services is just one more way that I can meet their needs and exceed their expectations. By embracing the latest technology in the payment industry, I am able to offer my clients more flexibility and convenience when it comes to payment options.

For those who are unfamiliar with my professional consulting services, I specialize in creating bespoke travel experiences for luxury cruise and golf travel enthusiasts. My clients rely on me to provide them with personalized recommendations, itinerary planning, group travel project management and travel design services that are tailored to their individual needs and preferences.

By accepting cryptocurrency as payment for my consulting services, I am not only keeping up with the latest trends in the payment industry but also demonstrating my commitment to providing exceptional service to my clients. With cryptocurrency becoming an increasingly popular payment method, I want to ensure that my clients have the flexibility and convenience to choose the payment option they need when they engage my services.
