Fall Fashion Trio: Carla Busso, Bernardo + Amour Vert

by EVA WHALEN

If you ever wished you had an outfit that would work for multiple occasions, greatly simplifying your sartorial lifestyle, then these items are for you: the Bernardo Selma Loafer, a gorgeous Wynn timer Ecovero Amour Vert jumpsuit, and unique handbags from the Carla Busso Handbag Atelier.

The Wynn timer Ecovero flowered jumpsuit by Amour Vert is brilliant because it can be worn in any season to a variety of casual and upscale events, depending on your shoe and jacket choice. For summer it's a stand-alone with sandals or sneakers, and for Fall it can be paired with a black jacket and heels or booties. In winter, don it with a sleek cashmere sweater and chunky boots. It's incredibly soft, and the fact that it's stretchy with a belt means that you can gain or lose a few pounds (think: Thanksgiving dinner) and still feel just as comfortable in it. The flowers upon navy provide pops of color that will compliment just about any top or covering; available in XS – XL in Stella Floral Navy, and hand-washable for when you travel.

Sometimes you want a versatile purse that works for multiple occasions, ranging from travel to special events to work. The Carla Busso Handbag Atelier's stunning and luxurious Singapore Collection – which includes the Malay Crossbody Bag – is just that. Available in a range of two-toned colors, these handbags artfully fuse color, fine Argentinian leather, craftsmanship, utility, precious goods, meticulous attention to detail, and creative design with an overarching vision of utopias. These imaginary utopias are sheltering ports where you can derive inspiration and comfort from your daily journey, and where dreams are envisioned and materialized.

All Carla Busso handbags are created from the highest quality soft leather with hardware that stands the test of time and appears elegant. These have an upscale, mod, sporty vibe, which works wherever you roam – be it the Whitney Museum, pizza shop, Hamptons, rooftop party, or the Spanish Steps in Rome. The Chek Jawa Leather Totes are equally distinctive, and the Taylor Vanda Baguette is downright adorable. The Adele Pulau Maxi Bag is a room, luxurious, goes-with-everything classic handbag. Choose your own favorite styles and colors. Carla Busso was born in Argentina with Italian roots, a combo that translates to a double passion for finding the beauty in life, as reflected in her handbags.

Bernardo's SELMA Loafer kicks off Fall 2022 with a practical, offbeat twist on the classic loafer. A little chunkier, a little more elevated, and a lot more interesting, this loafer comes in Cognac, Black with white piping, and Tri-Color (navy, white, tan) for all-day-long comfort. This Jessica Simpson Everlynn Penny Loafer is pretty fun with jeans, too – especially when you want something casual, but not sneakers.

Slip effortlessly into Fall with these uber flexible fashion picks, because doing things your own way and creative pairings are the veritable cornerstones of style.
