About Us

Pam Vieau, a hobby cook, decided to give her homemade English Toffee to friends as holiday gifts. Soon after the gifts were received her phone began ringing off the hook with requests to purchase her toffee.

Pam was overwhelmed with orders, her daughter, sisters and mom stepped in to help fill orders.

Her family was so impressed by the demand they suggested she start her own business.

Pam traded a batch of her cookies for her first chocolate machine and started what she thought was a part time chocolate business.

Her daughter Marcy joined her, as Pam continued her chocolate training, Marcy started selling

Eight months later, the mother/daughter team received their first corporate order

- and that customer continues to order for their clients today

Since then, small and large companies around the United States are giving Happy by Chocolate to their customers and employees
