

SOMOSBEDS PARTNERS WITH MATTRESS WAREHOUSE TO BE EXCLUSIVE RETAILER

SomosBeds is proud to announce a strategic partnership with Mattress Warehouse (sleephappens.com). The mattress company, which has around 300 stores on the East Coast/Mid-Atlantic region, will showcase and sell all of SomosBeds mattresses in its stores and online.

“It was a no-brainer for us,” said Mattress Warehouse VP of Marketing Tracy Jones. “We believe in what the SomosBeds company stands for – quality mattresses that are free of harmful chemicals at an affordable price.

“Anyone can come into one of our locations and test out one of the SomosBeds mattresses before purchasing it. It’s a great way to eliminate the guesswork.”

SomosBeds mattresses can be found and purchased now at Mattress Warehouse.

About SomosBeds:

The idea behind SomosBeds was simple: Let’s make a healthy, affordable mattress for everyone. A lot of other mattress-in-a-box companies will throw a lot of gibberish at you when it comes to “special features” their mattresses might have. This is what we can promise you: We are safe; we are comfortable; we are affordable; we are healthy. We are SomosBeds.
