

FULL OR PART TIME SALES CONSULTANTS

The Company

Anya Hindmarch, founded in London in 1987, is a luxury accessories brand. Anya was the first accessories designer to hold an on-schedule London Fashion Week show and has since grown into a global brand. Modern craftsmanship and personalisation sit at the heart of everything the brand does. Each bespoke piece is - as Anya says - about 'having your name on something, rather than mine'. The brand shows an ongoing commitment to the circularity of materials with the I Am A Plastic Bag campaign, a collection made from an innovative new fabric created from recycled plastic bottles, and the more recent Waste Not Want Not collections and Return to Nature.

The Village

The Village is an exciting and innovative retail concept on Pont Street in London. It has five neighbouring shops – The Anya Cafe, The Plastic Shop, The Labelled Shop, The Bespoke Shop and the Village Hall which houses different concepts throughout the year. The Anya Village offers innovative concepts, collaborations and exhibitions alongside our collections. It is a place for the brand to connect with its community, engage with projects it cares about and invite in collaborators.

Our Mainline Store

Our mainline store is located on Sloane Street selling seasonal collections.
