Top set on bench matched my PR w/ 90kg despite feeling weak and drained, so I'm actually pretty stoked with that. Also hit a small kilo plate PR with 80kg for 10 after the top set at 90. Following bench I had a great session and managed to get an excellent pump, although my left shoulder is still nagging me a small bit so I need to be wary of that.

We all have bad days in the gym and as you can see by these awful squats yesterday was my day ☹️ I tend to have at least one bad session every week thanks to stress and energy levels (not even pre workout or amino helps give a boost☹️)!!! Form may have not been the best and didn't keep my core in but hitting 80kg for 8x3 is amazing for how I felt this night! Even if you make it to the gym on a day you really didn't feel like going you should always give yourself a pat on the back as anything is better than nothing! legday keepgoing motivation gym weightlifting fitness.
