Loafology's philosophy is simple

homemade | handcrafted | fresh | organic | no additives or improvers

Loafology is all about an artisan food experience. Loafology bread is part science and part art. Artisan bakers handcraft each loaf, beginning the process with a sourdough starter that forms the basis of our bread.

We are guided by the seasons and ethical principles. Seasonal fruit and vegetables are fresher and tastier. Where possible we source locally from organic farmers in the region.
