

Courtney Larsen, aka "Spindles," is an artist, designer, and maker. She's a third generation Arizonan who loves to incorporate desert imagery, typography, and wildlife into her artwork. She spends most of her time painting and drawing in her studio, and focuses her work on visual storytelling.

You can find Courtney on Instagram at @theycallmespindles and can see more of her artwork at www.theycallmespindles.com

Courtney Larsen, aka "Spindles," is an artist, designer, and maker. She's a third generation Arizonan who loves to incorporate desert imagery, typography, and wildlife into her artwork. She spends most of her time painting and drawing in her studio, and focuses her work on visual storytelling.

You can find Courtney on Instagram at @theycallmespindles and can see more of her artwork at www.theycallmespindles.com

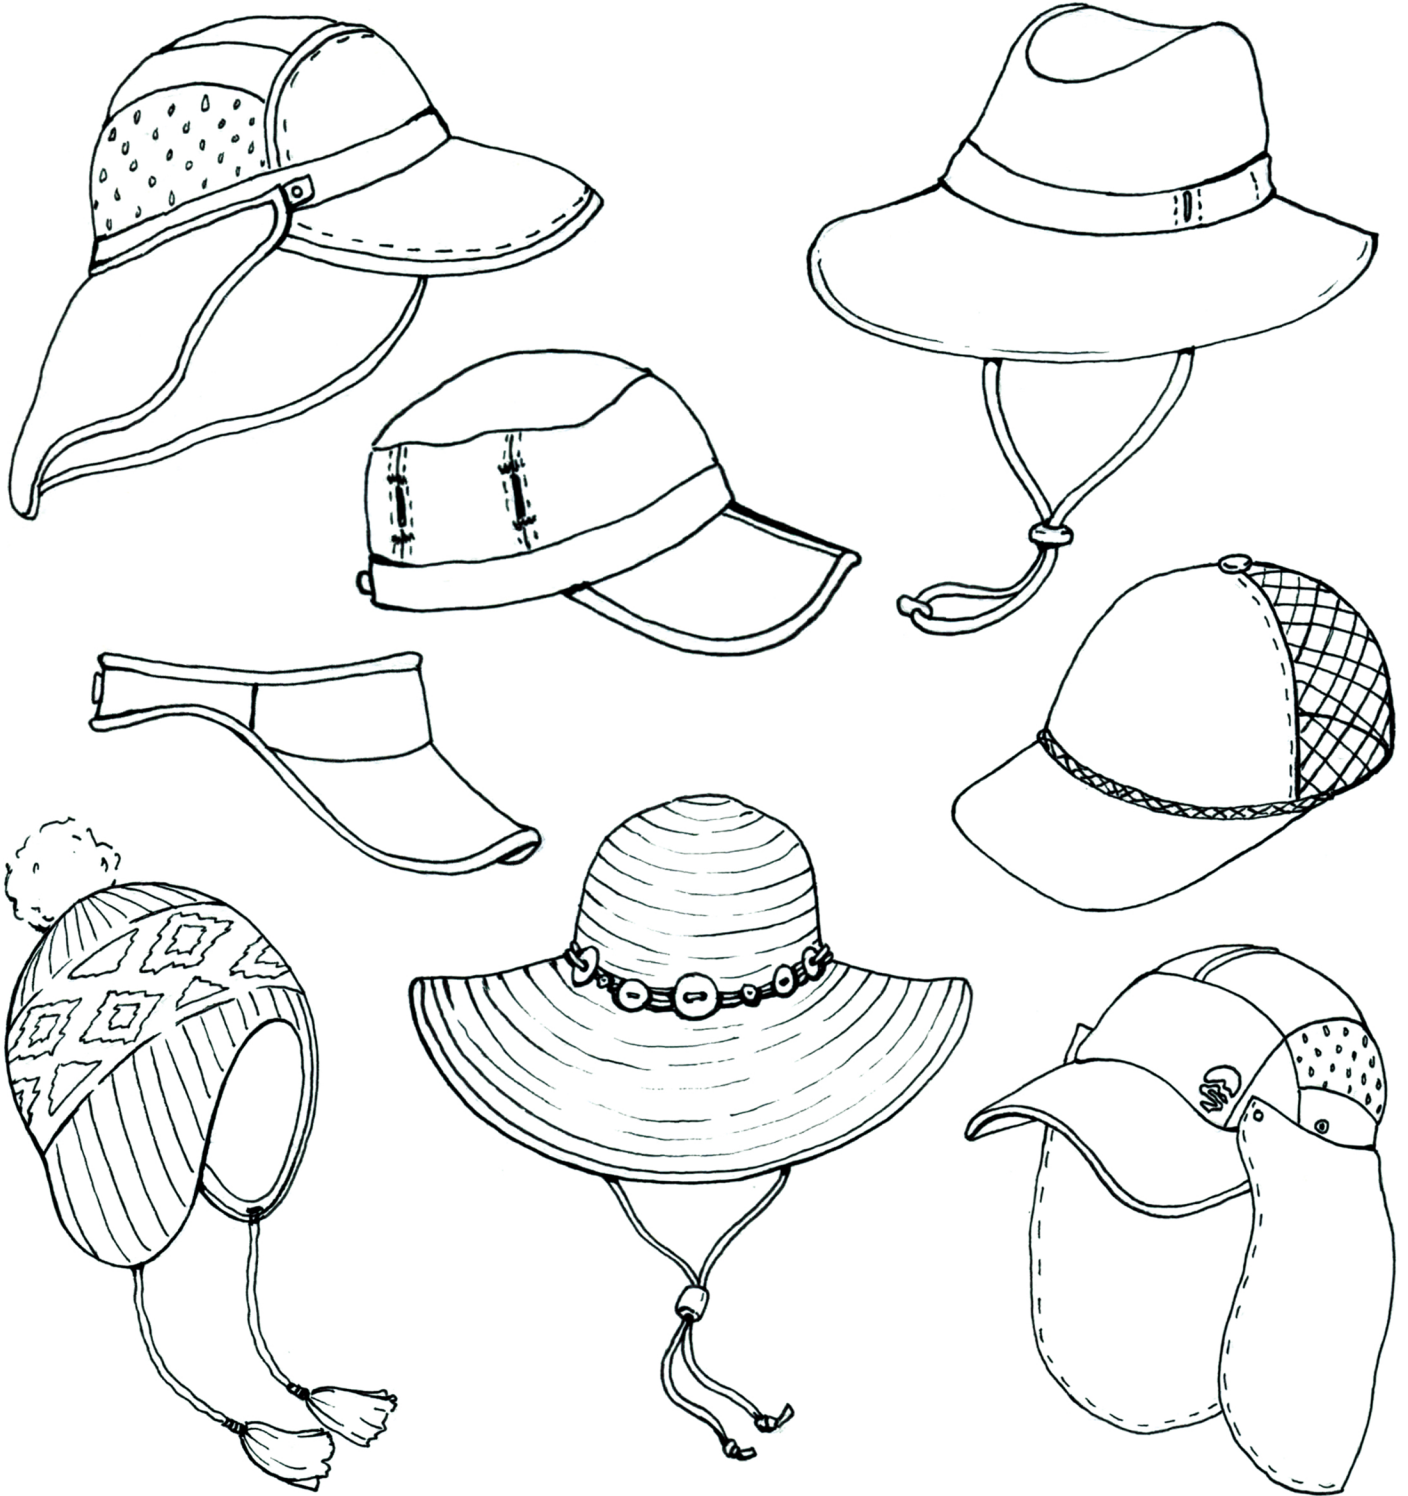

Courtney Larsen, aka "Spindles," is an artist, designer, and maker. She's a third generation Arizonan who loves to incorporate desert imagery, typography, and wildlife into her artwork. She spends most of her time painting and drawing in her studio, and focuses her work on visual storytelling.

You can find Courtney on Instagram at @theycallmespindles and can see more of her artwork at www.theycallmespindles.com

Courtney Larsen, aka "Spindles," is an artist, designer, and maker. She's a third generation Arizonan who loves to incorporate desert imagery, typography, and wildlife into her artwork. She spends most of her time painting and drawing in her studio, and focuses her work on visual storytelling.

You can find Courtney on Instagram at @theycallmespindles and can see more of her artwork at www.theycallmespindles.com

#DONTFORGETYOURHAT