The ultimate craft beer advent calendar

Craft beer trailblazers BrewDog have launched their 2021 advent calendar, featuring 24 different beers – the perfect way to count down the festive season with a cold one in hand and a different beer each day.

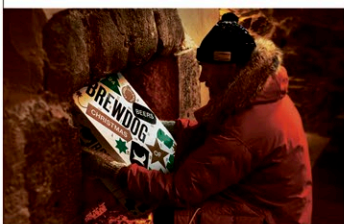

With last year's edition selling out in November 2020, this is your chance to avoid missing out and get your hands on the perfect adult advent calendar.

With styles ranging from hoppy IPAs and Pale Ales to decadent Stouts and some amazing collaboration beers, this advent calendar showcases the best of what BrewDog do. Inside you'll discover 14 new beers for 2021, six new for this Christmas and four online exclusives you can't find anywhere else. There are also some iconic favourites from the year-round BrewDog range that you know and love.

As part of the company's commitment to sustainability this product is carbon negative.

The perfect gift (to yourself) or the craft beer lover in your life. Buy the limited availability advent calendar for just £49.95 (including shipping) exclusively at brewdog.com/advent21

Bag versatility this Christmas

Does the perfect bag exist? With the bag built for dynamic women, cult-Cambridge brand BEAUDUROF, has been sweeping global design awards and included in Royal celebrations for its unique innovation and beautiful design.

"I needed a bag that would look beautiful in the boardroom yet was comfortable on the commute. A bag that was so well designed it would support my business credibility, but so versatile that it would fit my busy lifestyle, and my laptop," said founder, Jacqueline Gilbert.

When no such bag existed, BEAUDUROF was born. With a crisp snap of its bespoke gold clasps the bag converts from handbag to backpack using ingenious, patented, strap-conversion technology.

BEAUDUROF means 'bold in battle' in Old English; the brand that makes you feel you have everything you need to succeed within your grasp.

checklists.co.uk/win/poetic

Known for their big, bold, handcrafted flavours, the independently owned small batch distillery, Poetic License are celebrating their fifth anniversary gins. Poetic License products are crafted on their 500 litre still 'Gracie' and meticulously poured into their hand-painted bottles.

One of their handcrafted spirits was recently awarded three stars at the Great Taste Awards 2020, which delighted marketing manager Alex Clark.

Alex says: "It took over 500 batches to get the recipe just right, so it's incredibly pleasing to see the hard work of our distillers being rewarded."

The current price drop offer applies to a selection of lines across their range.

Poetic License also offer a Gin Getaway, as their distillery is based at the four-star Roker Hotel in Tyne and Wear. Facing the beach, with incredible panoramic views, the Gin Getaway includes a drink on arrival, an alcohol infused meal and breakfast.

Grab your bottle before someone else does. Visit the website at poeticlicensedistillery.co.uk to find out more.

OhMySkin – a facemask with enzyme power

The new OhMySkin Sublime Enzyme Face Mask, from The Hedox Clinic, has a unique, natural, enzyme-based clinical formula that dissolves the protein bonds between dead skin cells and new skin cells, enabling dead cells to shed and fresh new skin to be revealed. After just one application your skin can look and feel distinctively different.

The radiance-boosting mask contains a myriad potent botanicals, including cactus enzyme; wheat grass extract, meadowfoam, moringa oil and a range of concentrated vitamins, all of which have powerful antioxidant, anti-inflammatory and anti-bacterial properties.

The mask is great for even sensitive skin and delivers fantastic clinical-level results; clearing and refining pores, rejuvenating skin and brightening the complexion.

The OhMySkin mask is part of a home therapy kit that includes a headband, facial cloth and magnification mirror, making it the perfect gift. The full kit is priced at £79.
