Is It Time To Shave Your Beard?

THE REAL STORY OF GERMANWINGS FLIGHT 9525

12 DREAM TEAM

The best way to increase the longevity of your fragrance is to layer it. So if you're a Bleu de Chanel fan, start by using this aromatic shaving cream, which has a clear texture to allow you to easily shave that moustache or goatee, follow it up with a splash of the cooling aftershave gel and finish things off with a spritz of the woody fragrance. The ladies won't be able to resist. Bleu de Chanel Shaving Cream, ₹1,650 for 100ml, Hydrating Aftershave Gel, ₹2,650 for 50ml, both by Chanel

13 THE FOREPLAY

If you haven't already, add a pre-shave oil to your routine. The key to a good shave isn't only about effectively getting rid of facial fuzz - it's also about looking after the skin underneath to ensure it stays soft and smooth. A lubricating pre-shave oil will help you prep your mug for a clean shave by softening bristly facial hair and filling in any uneven areas on your face so the blade can glide over the skin with ease. And this one with antioxidant-heavy avocado, grape and sunflower seed oils is just the ticket. Pre-Shave Oil by Gentleman's Touch at Urban Store, ₹2,200 for 50ml

14 GET FRESH

Hand-whipped and using lime and mint fresh enough for a straight-from-the-garden motif, graphic designer Colette Austin makes these snail-salch aftershave creams that will just melt into your skin - and give it a happy buzz. Rosemary, Mint and Lime Face Post by The Skin Patchy, ₹1,100 for 50ml

15 SPLASH OUT

Naturally infused with more than 15 beneficial minerals and antioxidants to protect skin from pollution and grime, a couple of spritzes a day will not only refresh you but also speed up cell renewal. The eau of life, indeed. Kau Thermale by Vichy, ₹250 for 50g
