MASTER'S COLLECTION
MOHSIN BANDAY

A weaver of dreams

There is no such thing as bad color. It is just its placement and proportion in relation to others that creates a pleasant or unpleasant effect; said Mohsin Banday.

Mohsin Banday was born and bred in the City of hearts Lahore in an old and renewable carpet family. He took his degree in graphic designing from National College of Arts, Lahore.

He combines the finest of both orient and classical, occident and contemporary worlds, catering to the European and American market. He also inherited the great Naqqashi and Kashmiri jamavar traditions from his forefathers, combining them from his forefathers, combining them in all his creations for a brilliant effect.

It's distinctive subdued color palettes and the famous 'ambi', kunj, keri, booti, motifs been appropriated and exploited by the weaving factories of paisley, Scotland.

Mohsin is an innovative designer with unmatched sense of proportion and color. To this greatest inborn talent and rich ancestral heritage, he has infused the strengths of his various tutors.

Traditional Naqqashi was a gift to him from his father, while the sensitivity of line, the sense of balance and composition came from artists like, Saeed Akhtar and Ahmad Khan. Being a brilliant artist himself, Mohsin has thoroughly mastered the technicalities of his craft.

As he understands the character and exact nature of all the different materials and processes, he is able to successfully experiment making his constructions better and eye-catching.

Mohsin continues to work with undiminishing enthusiasm, passion and commitment, conceptualizing innovative designs to produce designs of exquisite quality that are a pleasure to own and display.

MASTER'S COLLECTION

HAND PAINTED DESIGNS

Mapping Banday's Dream

Our design team transferred the handmade drawings of Mohsin Banday and felt privileged to print the artworks on fabrics of summer '19 collection.

His drawings mainly entailed Kani, paisley, ikat, tie and dye, block printing, Sozan-Kari and all different types of Mughal and afghan inspired artworks.

Our team transferred his masterful art pieces into symbolic language, each of his art piece speaks its own volume.

We as a design team at Kayseria tried our best selecting fabrics according to each of his design placement and promotions, fragment by fragment enhancing and sustaining colors of each drawing transferring into fabric was over all an over whelming and nourishing experience.
