OUTDOOR UNITED STATES FLAGS

All flags are constructed for maximum durability as well as appearance. Seams are double-stitched throughout. Fly hems are multi-stitched with strong nylon or polyester thread, and reinforced with bar tacks. All have strong canvas headings and brass grommets (except flags 8' x 12' and larger which have nylon rope headings).

TOUGH-TEX (100% Polyester - 2x2 Ply)

The latest developments in fabric technology have been employed to produce a 100% polyester fabric with extraordinary wearing characteristics. Flags manufactured of polyester have demonstrated their durability under adverse conditions. This fabric has been specifically designed for the industrial user who requires a flag with long wearing properties. (Our choice for a combination of good looks and durability)

HISTORICAL FLAGS

THE EVOLUTION OF OLD GLORY

There have been 27 legal flags flown throughout our history. By law, a star is added to the U.S. Flag on the 4th of July following the admission of a State(s) to the Union. It is important to note that no U.S. Flag ever becomes obsolete. All flags throughout our history are still flags and can be flown at anytime.

Historical Old Glory flags are available in our all weather nylon and have applied fields and sewn stripes. Call us for pricing and availability on these flags.

Flagpoles in general, will generate 3-4 times the attention than a sign of the same height.

This rate increases dramatically when the flagpole is taller than the sign. And Flagpoles cost considerably less than signage. So if you are looking to draw attention, show patriotism, sell more product or just make a statement, do it in a big way.

CUSTOM SEWN BANNERS AND FLAGS

CONSTRUCTION TYPES

There are numerous forms of construction. The easiest method to determine the form that you want is based on how you want the flag(s) or banner(s) to appear.

Some graphics or letters are symmetrical and will appear identical on the front and the back side. Sometimes you only want graphics on one side.

Sometimes copy must read from both sides. The following information will describe the forms that are available for all applique work.

Applique requires fabric being laid on top of fabric and then sewing and trimming a design or graphic.

A sewn design may be a printed piece that is appliqued into the field or where pieces are sewn together to keep a one "layer" appearance.

Single Faced, No Back: fabric (design) is laid on top of the field and sewn. Only stitching will show on back side. Normally used for a banner against a wall.

Single Faced With Liner: fabric is laid on the top side while a full liner to match the field color is added to the back side for a more full body. Normally used for a banner against a wall or in an open area where the back side would be visible.

Single/Reverse Construction: fabric is laid on the front and the back side of the field and then sewn. The design would appear on both sides of the main body (field). The front side would be read as positive while the back side would read as negative, or in reverse (mirror image). This is normally used with flags.

Stained Glass Construction: fabric is laid on top of the field. After sewing, the back side is trimmed away creating a stained glass window effect. When completed, it is actually one layer of fabric held together by stitching. This is only recommended for indoor usage as a banner or flag.

Double Seal: There are times when copy or part of a graphic needs to be positive on both sides of the field while the rest of the design does not. Part of the construction is single/reverse while the double seal is actually made twice and sewn back-to-back.

Double Construction: Consists of making the banner or flag two times and sewing it back-to-back. This allows all copy and graphics to read positive from both sides.

What are the five days in a year that the U.S. flag should be displayed at half-mast?

The five days that the U.S. flag should be displayed at half-staff are:

- May 15, Peace Officer's Memorial Day
- Memorial Day, the last Monday in May. Only till noon, then the flag is raised to full staff.
- July 27th, Korean War Veteran's Armistice Day
- September 11th, Patriot Day
- December 7th, Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day

Patriot Day

Patriot Day has been added to the Flag Holidays listed in section 174 of the U.S. Flag Code. On December 18, 2001, President Bush signed Public Law No: 107-89 designating September 11th as Patriot Day. State and local governments and the people of the United States are asked to observe Patriot Day with appropriate programs and activities to honor the individuals who lost their lives as a result of the terrorist attacks on that date in 2001.

The day has also been designated as a day that the U.S. flag should be flown at half-staff from sunrise to sundown, not just until noon as is done on Memorial Day. The people of the United States are asked to observe a moment of silence on Patriot Day in remembrance of the victims.

Patriot Day should not be confused with Patriot's Day, a regional holiday celebrated in New England on the third Monday in April which commemorates Paul Revere's ride and the battle of Lexington & Concord during the Revolutionary War. The Boston Marathon is run on Patriot's Day every year.

EVERYDAY FLAG ETIQUETTE

GENERAL DISPLAY

It is the universal custom to display the flag only from sunrise to sunset on buildings and on stationary flagstaves in the open. However, when a patriotic effect is desired, the flag may be displayed twenty-four hours a day if properly illuminated during the hours of darkness.

1 When displayed either horizontally or vertically against a wall, the union should be uppermost and to the flag's own right, that is, to the observer's left. When displayed in a window, the flag should be displayed in the same way, with the union or blue field to the left of the observer in the street.

No other flag or pennant should be placed above or, if on the same level, to the right of the flag of the United States of America, except during church services conducted by naval chaplains at sea...for personnel of the Navy...when the church pennant may be flown above the flag.

No person shall display the flag of the United Nations or any other national or international flag equal, above, or in a position of superior prominence or honor to, or in place of, the flag of the United States at any place within the United States or any Territory or possession thereof; Provided, that nothing in this section shall make unlawful the continuance of the practice heretofore followed of displaying the flag of the United Nations in a position of superior prominence or honor, and other national flags in positions of equal prominence or honor, with that of the flag of the United States at the headquarters of the United Nations.

2 When flags of States, cities or localities, or pennants of societies are flown on the same halyard with the flag of the United States, the latter should always be at the peak.

3 When the flags are flown from adjacent staffs, the flag of the United States should be hoisted first and lowered last. No such flag or pennant may be placed above the flag of the United States or to the United States flag's right.

4 The flag of the United States of America, when it is displayed with another flag against a wall from crossed staffs, should be on the right, the flag's own right, and its staff should be in front of the staff of the other flag.

5 The flag of the United States of America should be at the center and at the highest point of the group when a number of flags of States or localities or pennants of societies are grouped and displayed from staffs.

6 When flags of two or more nations are displayed, they are to be flown from separate staffs of the same height. The flags should be of approximately equal size. International usage forbids the display of the flag of one nation above that of another nation in time of peace.

CHURCHES, AUDITORIUMS

7 When used on a speaker's platform, the flag, if displayed flat, should be displayed above and behind the speaker. When displayed from a staff in a church or public auditorium, the flag of the United States of America should hold the position of superior prominence, in advance of the audience, and in the position of honor at the clergyman's or speaker's right as he faces the audience. Any other flag so displayed should be placed on the left of the clergyman or speaker or the right of the audience.

HALF-STAFF

The flag, when flown at half-staff, should be first hoisted to the peak for an instant and then lowered to the half-staff position. The flag should be again raised to the peak before it is lowered for the day. On Memorial Day, the flag should be displayed at half-staff until noon only, then raised to the top of the staff. By order of the President, the flag shall be flown at half-staff upon the death of principal figures of the United States Government and the Governor of a State, territory or possession, as a mark of respect to their memory. In the event of the death of other officials or foreign dignitaries, the flag is to be displayed at half-staff according to Presidential instructions or orders, or in accordance with recognized customs or practices not inconsistent with law.

In the event of the death of a present or former official of the government of any State, territory or possession of the United States, the Governor of that State, territory or possession may proclaim that the National flag may be flown at half-staff.

NOTE: The U.S. Flag should always be on its own right in relation to other flags on adjacent staffs - to the left of the observer - except when displayed as in #5.

Excerpts From The Flag Code of The United States - Public Law 94-344, July 7, 1976.

ALL ABOUT FLAGPOLES

The City of The 1000 Flags

Once upon a time in ancient Rome right on the main thoroughfare between Rome and the north of Italy, there was a very, very small village. In fact, there were only ten people in the village but even so it was a rest stop for travelers on their way to Rome. Unfortunately no one ever stopped. Years went by and this dusty little town never grew and business did not flourish. One day the youngest boy who lived in the town tried to attract some attention from passerbys by puring his red shirt on a stick in the middle of the road, thus, he created a flag. Sure enough a person stopped and said, "Do you sell cold drinks here?" and the boy was able to sell some cold water to the passerby. The father noticed the boy's success as it had been the first traveler that had stopped in the last 12 years. He decided that if one flag could draw one passerby he would create a blue flag in addition to the red which he stuck on a higher stick. The father thought to himself, ah ha, if two flags have stopped four passerbys then three flags will stop many more. And so it went, along the road mile after mile, as the town grew more flags were added until finally the town had well over 1000 people and everyone had a flag and so the town became known as the "City of 1000 Flags," It grew and prospered and everyone made a very good living selling cold water and fruit.

FIBERGLASS FLAGPOLES:

State of the Art Flagpoles...A truly trouble-free product, and as strong as aluminum. Fiberglass Flagpoles come complete with a Ball, Truck, Halyard, Snaphooks, Cleat, Flash Collar and Groundsleeve (no lightning rod is required).

The standard finish is a gleaming bright white high strength coating that chemically bonds right into the pole during the manufacturing process. This guarantees a long-lasting high lustre finish. We can also furnish a Fiberglass Pole in a variety of colors for a minimal charge.

Fiberglass Flagpoles come in large butt diameters with only one diameter available in each of the pole heights. These poles are particularly good in areas near salt water and heavily polluted industrial sites. The poles are impervious to all types of chemicals in the air and salt spray. They make an excellent visual impact and a lovely addition to any commercial or residential location.

Internal Halyard Systems can be furnished on fiberglass Poles from 25' to 40'. The Internal Halyard Device is available on these poles for an additional charge.. Flagpoles up to 80' in height generally require a 2-3 week lead time. 100'+ poles are special order.

STEEL FLAGPOLES:

Steel Flagpoles are stocked in Residential Sizes. These are quite inexpensive and are easily shipped via UPS anywhere across the country. These poles are sectional so that you can even take them home in your car. Taller poles are available and are on a request only basis. They are available in any height and can be made as a diminishing sectional pole. Steel poles do require maintenance and painting, every few years.

Flagpoles in general, will generate 3-4 times the attention than a sign of the same height. This rate increases dramatically when the flagpole is taller than the sign. And Flagpoles cost considerably less than signage. So if you are looking to draw attention, show patriotism, sell more product or just make a statement, do it in a big way. Do it with Flags and Flagpoles ...Kronberg's Flags and Flagpoles.
