

7 Marvellous Art-Design Collections at Design Miami

From Fendi's Roman-inspired furniture to the Southern Guild's new voices in South African art-design, the 15th annual Design Miami delivers a great show.

WORDS Elizabeth Pagliacolo

POSTED Dec 5, 2019

SHARE Twitter, Facebook, LinkedIn, Pinterest, Email

Celebrating its 15th annual edition, Design Miami runs to December 8. These seven collections have us convinced that the art-design movement continues in full – and fully inspired – swing.

6 Living Divani at Luminaire (Offsite)

On show at Luminaire Lab, the exhibition “Ethereal Simplicity: Piero Lissoni / Konstantin Grcic” brings together the outputs of the two prolific designers. This includes Lissoni's Uncollected Collection for Living Divani, which includes three seemingly light-as-air chairs in steel rod and aluminum. As we wrote in our September 2019 issue, Lissoni – who has steered Living Divani as art director for 30 years now – “was given free reign to create something special to mark the occasion. Drawing inspiration from various sources, including the art of Jeff Koons, he came up with a limited-edition collection that's a study on the contours of furniture drawn in broad and thin strokes.”