Coinciding with the second edition of Frieze LA, Luminaire and Flaunt bring together key LA figures from the world of art, music, entertainment, architecture and design in celebration of the Home Issue: A Return. The special one-night photo exhibition features snapshots from inside the residence of LA's most interesting denizens. Following the idea of how certain nooks and corners allow for the juxtaposition of objects, space, and architecture, a curated list of participants were invited to share a glimpse into their homes and photograph their favorite "corner" within.

FLAUNT AND LUMINAIRE CELEBRATE THE HOME ISSUE ON THE OCCASION OF FRIEZE LOS ANGELES

BY FLAUNT MAGAZINE

Flaunt and prolific design showroom, Luminaire (<https://www.luminaire.com>), partnered for a bespoke photo exhibition featuring the city's musicians, designers, architects, and movers n' shakers, to present participants' favorite "corners," however personal or abstract that may be. The partnership marked a kickoff to the beloved Frieze Art Fair, and celebrated Flaunt's Home Issue, in which an original iteration of the "favorite corners" took place.

Flaunt Editor-in-Chief, Matthew Bedard, commenced the evening with a panel including Tatiana Barhar, Clive Wilkinson, Susan Kleinberg, and Andi Elloway, the former two sharing what led to their favorite corner "submission," and the latter two sharing their relationship to home, and how their respective practices intersect with the themes of comfort, familiarity, and being true to oneself.

The evening was accompanied by a lo-fi and ambient DJ set curated by the inimitable Jonny Mons, adding to guests' sensory intake of effervescent champagne and nibbly things.
