

Djøf Forlag

Guidelines for submission of articles - NTS

Guide to writing manuscripts for journal articles

Nordisk Tidsskrift for Selskabsret

Nordic Journal of Company Law

Nordic Journal of Company Law complies with international standards regarding peer review of scientific articles and papers. All articles are peer reviewed. Nordic Journal of Company Law aim is:

- To bring scientific articles on corporate law
- To provide information on developments in corporate law – in the Nordic countries and internationally
- To discuss and comment on new legislation, case law and literature
- To facilitate a professional debate across the Nordic countries on current topics within corporate law and corporate governance.

Nordic Journal of Company Law is published four times a year. The editorial board is Nordic. The editors welcome articles and other contributions for publication. When articles are received, they will be subject to peer review as a basis for admission to the journal. Deadline for submission will be available at Djøf Forlag's website: <https://www.djoefforlag.dk/content/nordisk-tidsskrift-selskabsret>

Articles for submission:

- Max. 15 pages, including notes
- Contain an abstract or a brief summary
- Languages: Danish, Swedish, Norwegian or English.

The author guarantees the copyright of the article or paper.

The author receives an electronic copy of the article for proofreading and a free copy in pdf.