Supporting You

Vitassium operates around supporting the chronic illness community, and the Vitassium Club is just one of the ways we do that. We also partner with chronic illness advocates and spoonie-owned small businesses to support their work, sponsor community organizations like Dysautonomia International, share educational resources on our social media channels and blog, and more! Learn more at Vitassium.com.

*or one of our partners, if ordering outside the U.S.
