THE NATURAL AFRICA CAPE ALOE SERUM, £95

This luxurious potion infused with the goodness of wild-harvested Aloe Ferox promises to revolutionise your skincare routine and transform your complexion into a glowing canvas of radiance.

Derived from the African continent, this wonder plant boasts incredible anti-inflammatory properties, surpassing its more commonly known cousin, Aloe Vera, by a staggering 20 times. This potency makes it an ideal solution for soothing and revitalising sunburnt skin.

With continued use, you'll notice an undeniable luminosity that emanates from within, making your complexion the envy of all.
