17. If you love taking care of your skin as well as the planet, you need to know about The Natural Africa.

The Natural Africa

"Their collection currently consists of four capsule skincare products which are produced in small batches and come in the most gorgeous eco-friendly packaging. The organic, plant-based botanicals they use have been sustainably wild-harvested from across Sub-Saharan Africa, and contain incredible ingredients like the Resurrection Plant (which dries out completely and appears to be dead, only to spring to life three hours after rainfall!). Mark my words: they're soon to be your new favourite skincare brand.

But don't just take my word for it – check out their amazing formulas for yourself in one of their up-coming pop-ups:

Raye the Store in Notting Hill – on from now till 20th April

9 Rathbone Place – on from 7th April - 10th May"
