Details

Target Description	Potassium channel subfamily T member 1 or -KCNT1/Slo2.2/Slack K + channel is encoded by the gene KCNT1. Slo2.2 is a member of the the voltage-gated ion channel (vic) superfamily, and the KCNT protein family, which is made of KCNT1 and KCNT2. Slo2.2 functions as an outwardly rectifying potassium channel subunit to contribute to ion conductance and signaling pathways. Slo2.2 can be activated by high intracellular sodium or chloride levels. Slo2.2 is expressed at the membrane in many areas of the brain, brainstem, spinal cord, spleen and liver. Mutations in this gene cause the early-onset epileptic disorders
Specificity	No cross-reactivity reported
Purification Method	Produced by in vitro bioreactor culture of hybridoma line followed by Protein A affinity chromatography and conjugation of purified mAb. Purified mAbs are >90% specific antibody.
Quality Control Tests	Each new lot of antibody is quality control tested by western blot on rat whole brain lysate and confirmed to stain the expected molecular weight band.
