Details

Target Description	Neurofascin is encoded by the gene NFASC. Two major isoforms of NeuroFascin are expressed as a result of alternative splicing, NF186 and NF155. These proteins are expressed in the central nervous system. In brain, NF186 is expressed at Nodes of Ranvier and NF155 is expressed in unmyelinated axons. Neurofascin plays a role in cell adhesion and is thought to be involved in processes such as neurite extension, synaptogenesis and myelination. Diseases associated with this gene include Demyelinating Polyneuropathy.
Specificity	No cross-reactivity reported
Purification Method	Produced by in vitro bioreactor culture of hybridoma line followed by Protein A affinity chromatography and conjugation of purified mAb. Purified mAbs are >90% specific antibody.
Quality Control Tests	Each new lot of antibody is quality control tested by western blot on rat whole brain lysate and confirmed to stain the expected molecular weight band.
