Details

Target Description	Anoctamin-6, Transmembrane Protein 16F or -ANO6/TMEM16F is encoded by the gene ANO6. ANO6 belongs to the anoctamin family of membrane proteins many of which are calcium-activated chloride channels. ANO6 plays a role as a regulator of phospholipid scrambling in platelets (which is involved in blood clotting). ANO6 is expressed in epithelial tissues. Diseases associated with ANO6 include Scott Syndrome and Miyoshi Muscular Dystrophy 3.
Specificity	Does not cross-react with ANO5/TMEM16E
Purification Method	Produced by in vitro bioreactor culture of hybridoma line followed by Protein A affinity chromatography and conjugation of purified mAb. Purified mAbs are >90% specific antibody.
Quality Control Tests	Each new lot of antibody is quality control tested by western blot on rat whole brain lysate and confirmed to stain the expected molecular weight band.
Storage	Aliquot and store at ≤ -20°C for long term storage. For short term storage, store at 2-8°C. For maximum recovery of product, centrifuge the vial prior to removing the cap.
