Details

Target Description	Neuroigin2 is encoded by the gene NLGN2. Neuroigin2 is a transmembrane scaffolding protein and cell adhesion molecule. It is involved in cell-cell interactions in neurons and in other cell types. It is expressed in many tissues, including the brain where it is located at the postsynaptic membrane and is involved in regulation of inhibitory synapses, synapse formation and synaptic transmission. Diseases associated with this gene include Pervasive Developmental Disorder and Autism.
Specificity	No cross-reactivity reported
Purification Method	Produced by in vitro bioreactor culture of hybridoma line followed by Protein A affinity chromatography and conjugation of purified mAb. Purified mAbs are >90% specific antibody.
Quality Control Tests	Each new lot of antibody is quality control tested by western blot on rat whole brain lysate and confirmed to stain the expected molecular weight band.
