2022

LO SCARABEO

2021 has been a special year for many. For our publishing house as well, it has been full of difficulties and victories, of thoughts and dreams. Two of the biggest cultural events in Italy - undoubtedly the two biggest among those related to publishing - have seen us as indirectly protagonists.

The poster for the Lucca Fair was created, in fact, by our Paolo Barbieri. Paolo (check his soon to be published splendid Oracle of the Night Fairies, at page 24) connected the re-opening of Lucca after the Covid emergency to the 500th anniversary of Dante's death, and create an incredible illustration with the words "a riveder le stelle" (to see the stars again). No less important, with the caption "vita supernova", is the poster for the Turin International Book Fair, created by Elisa Seitzinger - herself an artist from Turin and of great international renown. The deck created by her for Lo Scarabeo, with the title Symbolic Soul Tarot (see page 11), will be released in October 2022: a refined work, made like an ancient woodcut and embellished with gold interventions.

These two posters are two small drops in the sea that revolves around the Lo Scarabeo, but we also believe that they bear witness to how our constant artistic and content research is leading us, step by step, to create increasingly beautiful and meaningful decks.

Not cards, and yet still Tarot: this year Lo Scarabeo will release a new line of Talisman Coins, inspired by the energies and Archetypes of the Arcana. This is a production of very high quality, especially in materials (see page 27). During 2022, the first two titles - inspired by the Magician and the High Priestess - of a series of 22 Talismans will be published, each with its own characteristics and with the image of the Tarot card engraved on the surface.

This year also sees an increase in Lo Scarabeo's efforts towards the digital world. YouTube, Instagram, Facebook: on all social media it is now easier to discover information and curiosities about our Tarot, even just the release dates of the decks and previews of the images. We are also opening several collaborations with Italian and foreign influencers (for example @soloredie) to be able to communicate better and better with our audience.

As in all things, we may not aspire to perfection, but we can certainly face the future by making great progress in small steps.
Welcome 2022. Find it out together with us!
