BECAUSE LIFE FEELS GOOD

Spring-Summer 2024

Our Story

At Sympli, we create versatile pieces that help our customers express their unique personal styles. We like to experiment, push boundaries, and not always play by the rules. As our customers evolve, we do too – with a style that is always on trend, seamless, and effortless.

Sympli launched in 2001 when our Canadian founder, Jan Stimpson, set out to create a style to inspire women of all ages and body types to be their most confident selves. She started with that ultimate symbol of go-anywhere freedom: the perfect white t-shirt. Building on her success, we've grown to enjoy a very devoted following, not just for our unexpected design ethos but for our quality fabrics, precise and flattering fits, our commitment to comfort and our commitment to style.

Because Life Feels Good.
