500 educators, youth development professionals, and nonprofit leaders from across the state.

An extended network of more than 10,000 stakeholders serving young people in our region who receive regular news and updates about conference sponsors.

Thousands more reached through social media of SOWA and our many partners, spanning the expanded learning and education sectors.

School's Out Washington's annual Bridge Conference brings together youth development professionals, community organizers, school district representatives, funders, policymakers, and systems leaders to explore, celebrate, and influence our fields.

Our 2020 Bridge Conference theme, the Seeds We Sow, emphasizes intention in the act of reimagination. Only together, as a collective, will we solidify a new foundation that intertwines our cultures, values, and leadership to nourish all our young people's excellence and right to thrive.

At this premier conference in the Pacific Northwest, sponsors can support strong programs for young people while reaching:

- 500 educator, youth development professionals, and nonprofit leaders from across the state
- An extended network of more than 10,000 stakeholders serving young people in our region who receive regular news and updated about conference sponsors
- Thousands more reached through social media of SOWA and our many partners, spanning the expanded learning and education sectors.
