- Respect the participants’ prior knowledge.
- Ensure that presentations are delivered in a culturally competent/culturally responsive manner.
- Allow opportunities for participants to share their wisdom and expertise.
- Build on participants’ experiences and strengths.
✓ Promote the idea of parents being equal partners in their child’s education.
✓ Start with concepts that are familiar to participants before moving to unfamiliar topics/materials.
✓ Plan sequentially. Connect previous lesson to next lesson.

Logistics to consider:

- Childcare
- Transportation
- Convenient day/time
- Convenient location
- Interpretation
- Seating arrangements
- Culturally competent facilitator

Implementation Tips:

✓ Audience: Determine audience. One or diverse ethnic group(s)/language group(s)?
  Resettlement stage of participants? Trust level between participants and your organization?
  Workshop requested by participants or initiated based on your assessment of their needs?
  Level of participant interest/engagement?

✓ Outreach: How will you promote/outreach to families? Invite families through what channels?
  Phone calls? In person? Through school/agency?

✓ Collaborate: Would collaboration make sense? Aligned goals and values? Who would be good partners/players to invite to take part in sessions? Could collaboration help meet logistical challenges? Enhance credibility? Meet expertise gaps? Fulfill cultural broker roles?

✓ Format: Decide how many sessions. Single workshop? Series? What format? Length?

✓ Topic and Subtopics: Choose which topic/s is most relevant to parents’ concerns/needs. Decide what areas are most important under that topic. Use guide to find information on what you want to share.

✓ Guide and Outline Lesson: Create outline for lesson plan – include appropriate presenters/information/activities/visuals/presentation modes.

✓ Experiential Methods: How can lessons be presented in a way that engages parents and involves interactive and experiential learning? Use modeling? Role playing? Other ideas?

✓ Handouts: If possible, include visual/translated handouts that can be taken home.

✓ Invite and Listen: Invite parents to share their experiences with schools/parenting in their home countries. Validate their experiences. Build off of their experiences.

✓ Parental Authority: Does content and approach affirm parents as partners? Is information being presented in way that reinforces parental authority? Do workshop interactions positively and respectfully affirm parental authority? Are parents listened to? Are they treated as experts? Are their perspectives validated?

✓ Explain: Explain everything but keep it simple for translation – avoid technical terms and jargon.

✓ Questions: Leave plenty of time for questions at the end and throughout.
