CHEERS! KNOCKOUT PARTY PUNCHES

A FAMILY BETS ON GEORGIA OYSTERS

GARDENANDGUN.COM

BEST OF THE SPORTING SOUTH

TAKING OFF ON THE FISHING TRIP OF A LIFETIME

TOUR THE ULTIMATE SHOTGUN COLLECTION

MEET THE NEXT GREAT WILDLIFE ARTIST

NINTH ANNUAL MADE IN THE SOUTH AWARDS

Our Celebration of Things Made Right p. 120

Raz sits at the ready at Pecan Island, Louisiana.
FOR A NIGHT OUT

Bow Tie and Cuff Links
Both the carnelian cuff links by South Carolina’s Dudley VanDyke ($450; dudleyvandyke.com) and the silk bow ties by Georgia’s Larkin Lane ($80; larkinlanedesigns.com) put a singular stamp on dressing up.

Watch
First introduced in 1963, the Rolex Cosmograph Daytona brings the elegance of yellow gold, steel, and a sleek black dial together with the practical stopwatch capability of a chronograph, so you can time that toast down to the second ($16,900; rolex.com).

Necklace and Rings
The Virginia native Temple St. Clair’s ruby and diamond Trio necklace ($22,000) and her Trio Eternity and Trio Vigna rings ($1,500–$2,750) are delicate enough to layer and stack liberally (templestclair.com).

Rings
The sentiment behind Monica Rich Kosann’s collectible Poesy rings dates to a fourteenth-century tradition of engraving inscriptions of friendship and inspiration on bands (from $375; monicarichkosann.com).

Earrings
Brent Neale’s eighteen-karat gold and hand-carved carnelian and turquoise studs call to mind festive stars ($5,400; elizabethbruns.com).

Backdrop Fabrics:
Longe 69363 in Concord and Sophia velvet 68153 in plum by Schumacher (fschumacher.com).