

DECEMBER 2014

VERANDA

SEASON of STYLE

COZY
ROOMS
FESTIVE
PARTIES
GREAT GIFTS

DECEMBER 2014 $5.99

0 279331 7

In Stitches Dijon linen cocktail napkins are ideal for the hostess who has everything—during party season, you can never have too many. $195 for eight; juliab.com.

Liquid Gold Ripe olives quickly cold-pressed and bottled yield a sublimely delicious oil. $36; formaggiokitchen.com.

Under Cover Crafted from the sumptuous textiles of a legendary Venetian firm, there's no more marvelous way to avoid the elements. $450; fortuny.com.

Bottle Rocket A handsome tigereye bar accessory from Aerin makes a party-ready stocking stuffer. $1,150; bergdorfgoodman.com.

PRACTICAL PLEASURES

Warm and Yummy A collection of flavored black, green, and red teas recalls the taste of such patisserie classics as macarons, madeleines, and financiers. $32 each; marriagefreres.com.

Tray Chic Monogram an antique sterling-silver nut dish as a singular token of thanks. From $40; croghansjewelbox.com.

Leader of the Pack Style hounds will wag their tails at the Fade leash—a super-fashionable lead made from marine rope that's been dip-dyed for an au courant ombre effect, with brass hardware to boot. $68; michelevarian.com.

Fine Prints Artist Kazumi Yoshida designs fabrics for Clarence House and is also an accomplished painter—prints of his whimsical, vivid watercolors are instant smile inducers. From $270; tigerflowerstudio.com.