

EXCLUSIVE HOME WORLDWIDE

TRAVEL:

Island time

With picture-perfect beaches and mountain ranges, a tropical climate and a vibrant mix of cultural influences, Mauritius is a spectacular African island destination

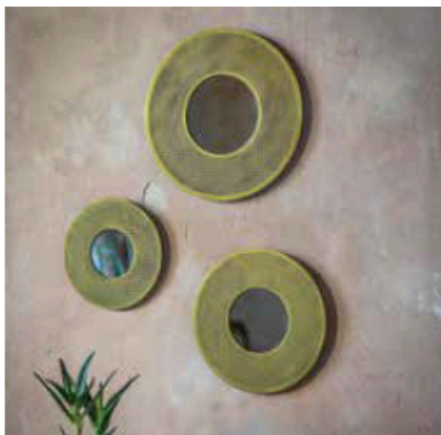

URBAN RETREAT:

Coming home

There's something special about the Maldives. It's more than the brilliant white sand, the breathtakingly blue ocean and the lush tropical foliage; it's the sum of all these things and more

Spice it up

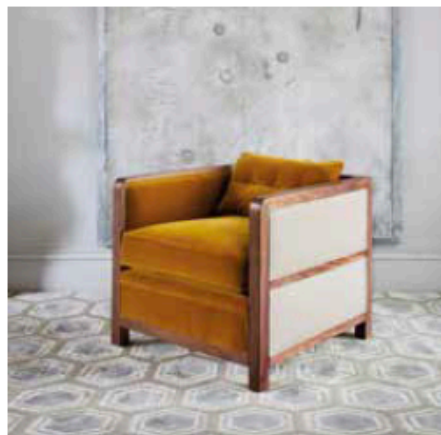

*Is it time to spice up your home with a rich, earthy colour palette?
Here are our picks of décor items in tones of spice and all things nice.*

▲ Esna Wall Mirrors – Atkin and Thyme

Give your living room, dining area, hallway, landing or bedroom a striking focal point with the Esna Wall Mirrors, which are available as a neat set of three. Hang over the fireplace or on a feature wall or chimney-breast to create a unique piece of art that is practical, too. The muted sage colours suit both classic and contemporary interiors.

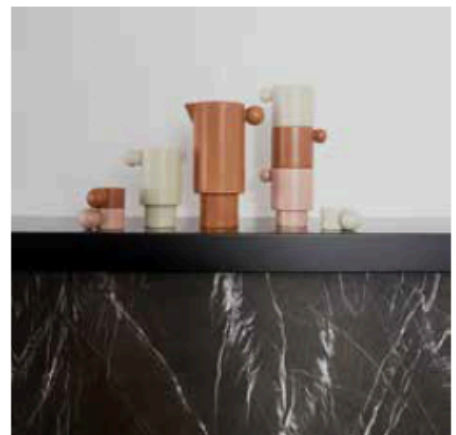

The set of three Esna Wall Mirrors is £79 from www.atkinandthyme.co.uk

▲ Bacco Armchair – Casa Botelho

Utterly lounge-worthy, the Bacco Armchair is a contemporary remodel of the iconic boxy chair. Exuding opulence with a Hollywood regency feel, the glamorous armchair is upholstered with natural wood finishes, six metres of the most divine and seductive fabrics – mustard in this instance – and brightly polished studs. The armchairs are made to order and handcrafted in the UK.

The Bacco Armchair is priced from £1,847 to £3,865. See www.casabotelho.com

▲ Inka Stoneware – Oyoy

The Inka series is crafted from handmade stoneware. It is simple and minimalistic, but modern and unusual, given the decorative handle on each of the pieces. The series includes lovely jugs, trays, cups and bowls in a variety of colours, from rose to caramel, which can be presented in a single colour or mixed. The Inka products are handmade, 100% ceramic and dishwasher safe.

The Inka series pieces are priced separately. See www.oyoylivingdesign.co.uk for details.
