Selfridges - the glittering star on Oxford Street

WE'RE FOLLOWING SELFRIDGES

@Selfridges

#WE LOVE Selfridges' attitude this Christmas, which is going for a full-on festive rave. Think daily confetti cannons exploding through the atrium, giant disco balls and an insane amount of glitter. This year's motto is 'Gather, give and get on down' - don't mind if we do.

#WE WANT A SELFIE with Father Christmas, who'll be roaming the floors with his elf and Polaroid camera.

Glitter bauble, £5.50 - just one of the dazzling items available in-store this Christmas

#WE'D LOVE to dance in the windows, which transport you to a raucous Alpine banquet, plus a bauble-filled Jacuzzi.

#WE'RE G-R-REAT, according to our personalised Kellogg's cereal boxes, which are among the clever pieces you can stamp your name all over this year.

#WE'LL FEAST in the Forest Restaurant & Bar up on the roof, about to be transformed into a winter wonderland - a bottomless prosecco brunch surrounded by trees, DJs and yet more glitter.

#WE'VE GOT TICKETS to the Sink the Pink performance at the in-store theatre from 9 November - it'll be the most glam panto of the year... selfridges.com

Decs in all the colours of the rainbow - plus a few you've never dreamed of...

WHITE ON

Douse your dinner in soft lights like this glowing extravaganza by The White Company. Mercury tea-light holders let a gentle glimmer suffuse on to the table, which bounces off gleaming silver accessories and the glittering garland centrepiece. Don't forget the surrounding area - the wall's alight with cascading fairy lights too. Fairy lights, £60; sparkle garland, £20; and tea-light holders, £10 each (thewhitecompany.com)

[Fan-tastique]

It's not just trees that need embellishing at this time of year - dress up your Diptyque candles too, with the brand's Carousel decoration. Fitting on to any of its 70g candles, the golden fan rotates with the heat of the flame making the birds dance. Only one question remains - are they partridges or turtle doves? £30 (diptyqueparis.co.uk)

BROLLY GOOD

Dust the snow off your brolly and stash it in the Bacco umbrella stand, which will welcome you home in style, thanks to its sleek architectural lines, pitch-black steel and solid Corian tray. Never has a rain accessory had such a fine abode. From £1,638 (casabotelho.com)

[Glitter queen]

Have a party on your dressing table with the sparkle editions of YSL Beauté's classic products. The Touche Éclat and Rouge Pur Lipstick packaging is dipped in gleaming gold and silver glitter, and the lipstick is finished with imprinted stars. Who cares if you're staying in tonight - get dolled up anyway. From £26 (yslbeauty.co.uk)
