and the

Jazzmint Dash,

is an artist and designer living in Brooklyn. Dash completed their M.F.A. in studio art from Parsons,The New School in 2017 after being awarded a merit based full tuition scholarship. Their first job in New York was an internship at costume designer Garo Sparo's studio, which was followed by a tenure as design assistant at the New York based vegan fur brand, House of Fluff. When the brand closed due to the Covid19 pandemic, Dash began to work with a number of private clients such as Milk the Drag Queen, Sasha Velour, and Scarlet Envy of Rupaul's Drag Race, among others, making custom performance and event attire.

In the past four years their work has been featured in publications including Vogue Italia, Paper Magazine, Them Magazine, Dazed Beauty, Mildew Mag, and others. They have had clothes pulled by multiple stylists working with musicians such as Anna Shoemaker, Neila, and Miette Hope for music video, and album cover shoots. Pieces of their custom client work have been featured in international performance tours, namely Sasha Velour's most recent travelling show, "The Big Reveal", as well as editorial shoots for product advertisements with brands like Svedka, and Grey Goose. They have also had the honor of sewing two wedding ensembles.

Technical Skills

Jazz has experience with pattern making, dress making and tailoring techniques, bias cut draping, custom corset construction, beadwork, feather embellishing, crystal and rhinestone application, hand sewing, jewelry making, and bias cut draping.

They are a quick learner and maintain a commitment to quality garment construction, on both the inside and exterior of a garment, which they understand enhances the lifespan, and overall comfort of a piece of clothing which is integral to perfromancewear.
