

Classic simplicity, cosy and comfortable.

Gazco Logic2 electric fires integrate modern technology with classic styling. Fully adjustable from your remote control, you can even choose to turn off the heat completely and simply enjoy the stunning flicker of our unique flame-effect technology. The Logic2 electric fire comes complete with three easily interchangeable fuel beds to add a unique aesthetic to your fireplace design.

With a heat output of up to 2kW and the option to set the flame visuals at two different settings, these fires can be easily installed with minimal building work.
