Charcoal Inspiration: Judith Ann Braun

"Make your work because you want to make it, see it, figure things out about it, and share it, show it...but don't think about the "market" and sales. Make make make, show show show....the rest is not your affair." - Judith Ann Braun

Featured Artist: Gabi Geva

My work is inspired in general from life and philosophy. To catch that very rare moment, a point or a line that makes the two dimensions and some graphite into a special moment of a living person, a unique person that he himself can see and feel the innermost feelings and passions of his soul, this was my aim in those portraits.
