What cannabis formats do consumers want?

The three core categories, dried flower, pre-rolls, and vapes, make up the vast majority of cannabis sales. Within these three categories, their shares of sales may rise and fall for seasonal popularity, but they never lose their spots in the top three.

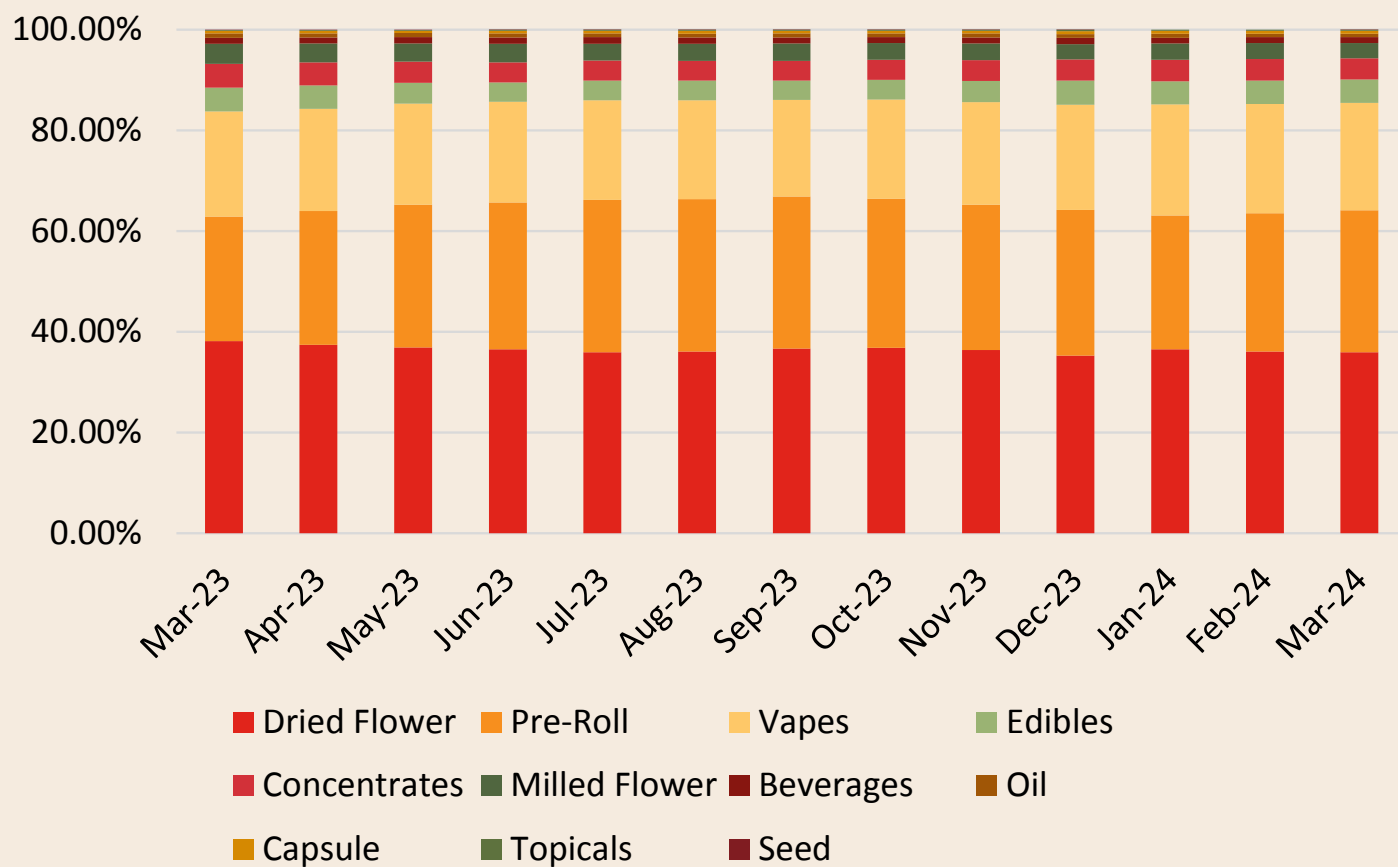

Did you know?

As the weather begins to turn for the better, smokers often swap their vapes and bong rips for grab-and-go pre-rolls and infused pre-rolls.

All-in-one vapes are gaining popularity, and with spring and summer coming up, we'll see which brands can create innovations in this category and set themselves apart from the pack.

What formats are getting more popular?

This data shows the trends in cannabis formats over the last month. Different formats become more popular in different seasons, as weather changes where and how people smoke, but dried flower remains the most popular format month over month.

As products get more popular, they often come out with larger formats versions—giving consumers that like them the opportunity to get more, for less! Infused pre-roll packs are following this trend, with larger 5-packs coming out.

We're seeing growth in new 2g vape cartridges, as well as in low-cost edibles that allow customers to pick up multiple packs at affordable price.

Spend less time browsing this 4/20, and more time celebrating.

Let's check out these trending picks, selected for uniqueness, rising sales, and bang for your buck!

FLOWER

Cookies
4 Cultivar
Flower Pack

Cookies – 4 Cultivar Flower Pack (28g)

This variety pack oz bag from Cookies is a fresh idea on classic flower. Fill your stash with four premium Cookies strains: Cheetah P, Cake Mix, Laughing Gas and Madrina. This pack lets you rotate your strains with the day's mood, while also enjoying the savings of a large format oz.

Get a variety of flavour profiles with Cheetah P's funkiness, Cake Mix's lemon and vanilla, Laughing Gas's grass and pine, and Madrina's sugary citrus and gas.

Back Forty Liquid Imagination

Back Forty – Liquid Imagination (28g)

Back Forty's oz bags are mainstays in our stores, with big hits like Panda Puff, Wedding Pie, and Mandarin Cookies frequently placing in our top 10 bestselling flower lists. Sitting at a stellar price point paired with consistent quality, it's no surprise to us that their new cultivar, Liquid Imagination, is carrying on that legacy.

A cross between Blue Zktlz x Jet Fuel Gelato, this hybrid boasts a sweet flavour profile with a pinch of gas.

The Loud Plug
Exotic Gas

The Loud Plug – Exotic Gas (28g)

This super pungent strain packs a punch of tangy, sweet, and earthy notes from its Pink CKS lineage, with a powerful twist of gas. Exotic Gas is just one of The Loud Plug's stellar lineup of trending weed, alongside their Venom OG flower, old school blunts, and infused pre-rolls. In February of this year, Exotic Gas was Canna Cabana's second best selling flower nationally!

Slow-cured, hang-dried, and topping out at 33% THC, this indica comes to you with love, from Scarborough.

Tribal
Triple Burger

Tribal – Triple Burger (3.5g)

Committed to top-tier craft cannabis, Tribal's weed lives on our bestseller lists. Triple Burger follows in the footsteps of one of our top craft offerings, Tribal's Cuban Linx. This GMO and Han-Solo Burger combo shows off its rare genetics and delivers an intense aroma of fuel, skunk, rubber, and cheese.

All of Tribal's cannabis is hang-dried, slow-cured in curing barrels, and hand-trimmed to preserve precious terpenes.

PRE-ROLLS

Shred X – Blueberry Blaster Heavies Infused Pre-Rolls (3x0.5g)

It's no secret that infused pre-rolls are on the rise across the country. We're seeing higher potency, higher flavour products come onto the market every month, and a few juggernauts like SHRED's 40%+ THC, distillate and diamond infused Heavies are rocketing up the charts.

Blueberry Blaster delivers a smooth blueberry and kush experience in a three-pack that's ready to grab and go. For more Heavies, check out SHRED's Mother Pucker Peach, Guava Lime Go-Time, or their variety pack of fruity hits, all at that intense potency!

General Admission – Razzilicious Infused Pre-Rolls (5x0.5g)

These pre-rolls are all about flavour! Packed with raspberry-like terpenes, they're heavy with mouth-puckering sourness with a sweet exhale. This 5-pack's pre-rolls are infused with tasty distillate and then rolled in kief to bump up their potency.

General Admission proudly takes up a huge chunk of our monthly top infused pre-rolls list, with their full line of fruity flavours like the pineapple and citrus Jungle Fruit, the sugary and tart Peach Ringz, the bright and juicy High Key Kiwi, the fruit punch and sweet cream Rainbow Sherb.

VAPES

LITTI – Slappn’ Berry Vape (1g)

These LITTI carts are the best of both worlds. Not just a distillate vape, and not just a concentrate vape, LITTI’s line of carts are jam-packed with pure THC and tasty terps, then topped with liquid diamonds! They feature a THC range topping out at a whopping 90%, with Slappn’ Berry combining that with a fresh blueberry inhale.

BoxHot – Cruise Control Nitro Vape (2g)

You haven’t seen a vape like this before. This 2g giant is packed not only with 1000mg of THC, but also 500mg of CBG and electric watermelon and tangy berry flavour. Nitro’s innovative formulation means a THC level hovering around 50%, making it easier to moderate your experience, whether you want to coast or go full throttle.

BoxHot’s vapes have made their name with their oversized hardware that is less likely to clog and that delivers huge clouds. For a more potent trending BoxHot carts, try their 1.2g Mango Vortex!

Spinach – Peach Punch Vape (1.2g)

It wouldn’t be a trending weed list without Spinach. You’ll recognize them as one of the familiar names on our top lists for several formats every single month, including flower, vapes, edibles, and pre-rolls.

The next step in Spinach’s smash-hit vapes, Peach Punch put on its gloves and fought its way to the top. With over 1000mg of THC and an irresistible price, Peach Punch is setting the standard for the future of vape carts. It’s inspired by Peaches and Cream, a phenotype of the legendary Skunk #1, with a peach and cream aroma.

What type of strain is sold most?

Many consumers use indica, sativa, or hybrid as a proxy for the experience they want to get. We see more consumers buying dried flower indica strains for use at home. On-the-go formats like pre-rolls, edibles, or vapes often feature sativa strains.

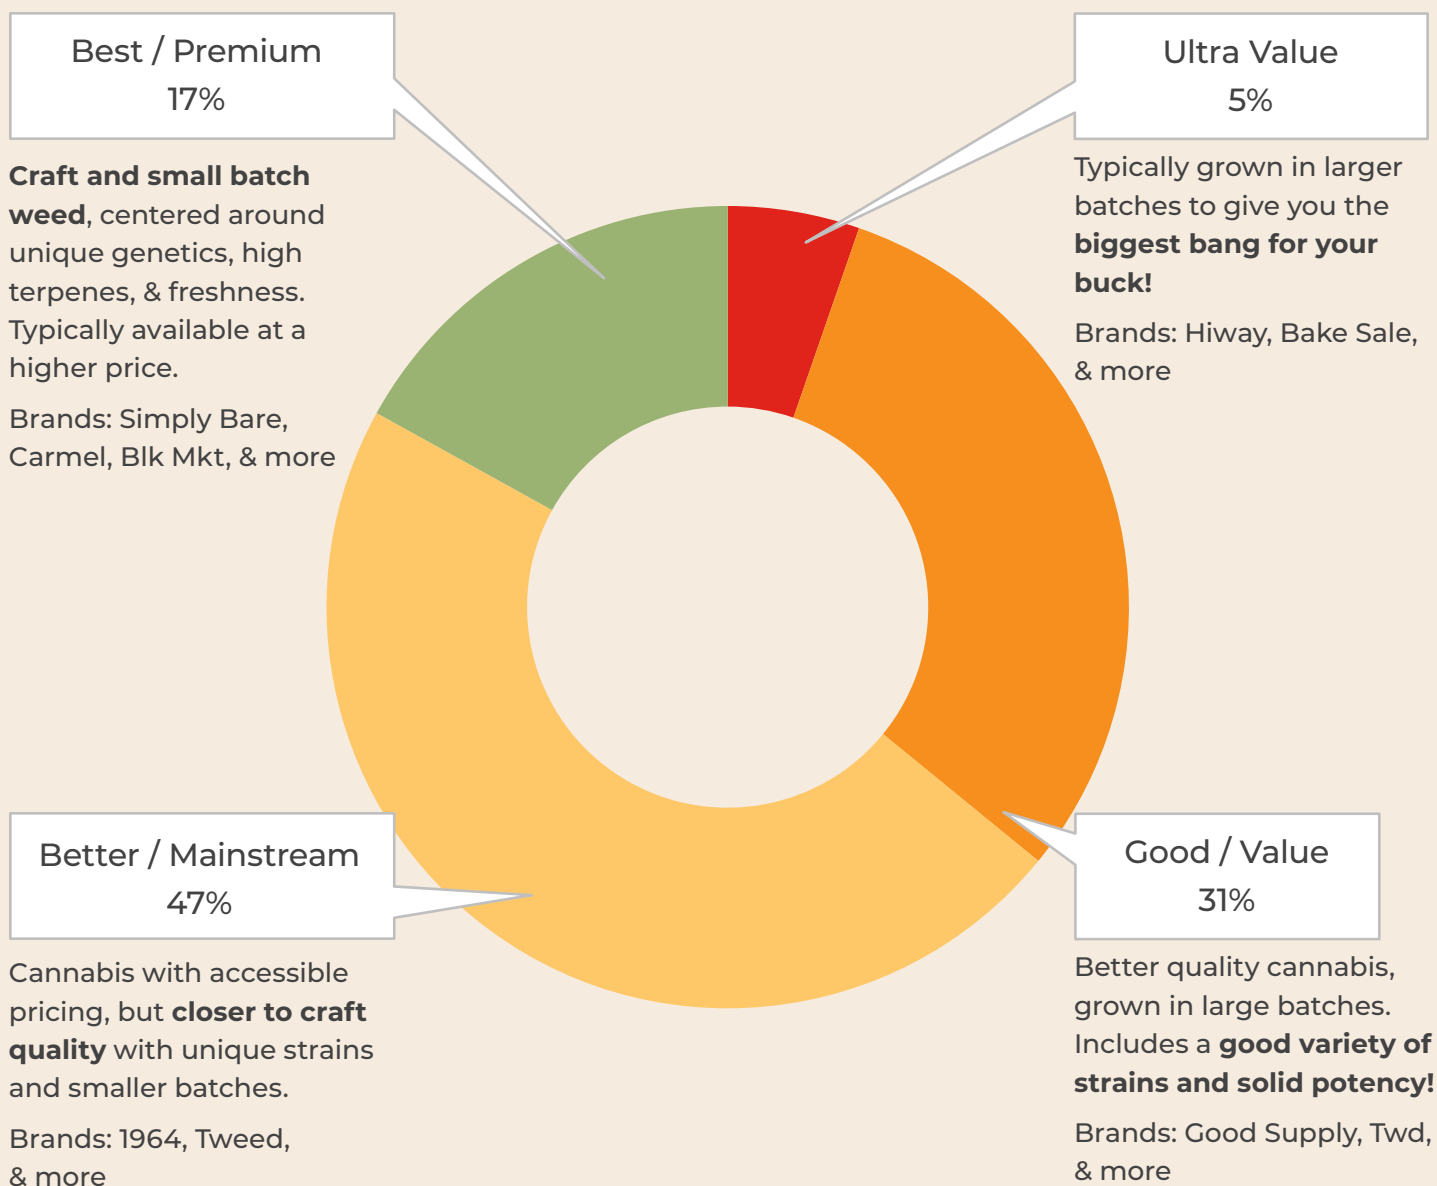

Hybrids don't get as much love because people tend to choose between the familiarity of indicas and sativas, but new potent strains like Liquid Imagination have been doing well.

More and more people are interested in minor cannabinoids that change their experience, like BoxHot's Cruise Control Nitro 2g vapes with a more moderate THC level mixed with CBG.

How much do consumers pay for their cannabis?

The vast majority of Canadian consumers buy high to mid value priced cannabis, with craft and premium categories remaining more niche. However, many industry professionals and online communities prefer premium and craft categories!

Categorizations of cannabis products are provided by the licensed producer and the associated cannabis & liquor control board.

Which vape brands sold the best this month?

Made with concentrated cannabis such as distillate or live resin, vapes are mostly sold in 510-thread compatible cartridges. They're popular for hassle-free or indoor cannabis consumption, as they require no prep and do not produce smoke. Vape carts are one of the most potent forms of cannabis, with THC levels normally reaching higher than 80%.

March's bestselling non-distillate vapes

Non-distillate vapes are typically made with cannabis concentrates like shatter or live resin. Most are not paired with botanical terpenes or other flavours, and are most often full-spectrum offerings that taste and smell like the strain they are extracted from.

The Brands that Made Cannabis

Since legalization, we've seen an explosion across the country of new brands, new products, and new formats that are changing the face of cannabis. With 420 month in full swing, we want to take a moment out of celebrating and appreciate the incredible strides Canadian weed has made in just a few short years—and the brands that helped us get here.

Today, we're looking at a few of the big names shaping our budding industry, from the pioneers that pushed the envelope at the start of legalization to new brands making a name for themselves. With a nod to tradition and a leap towards the future, they're bringing innovative new products, meticulous craft offerings, or high-quality weed for unbelievable price points.

Here's to the inventors, the rule benders, the trailblazers: crafting not just good weed, but a culture around it.

Broken Coast

Since 2013, Broken Coast has been sculpting the Canadian cannabis scene with their artisanal growing methods, emphasis on quality, and genetic diversity. Their early dive into the legal market wasn't just about setting up shop—it was about setting the bar.

We can credit part of craft cannabis's rise to Broken Coast. By prioritizing craft quality and practices, they carved out a space in the market for consumers who value artisanal quality, sustainability, and the subtle nuances of rare genetics. With their rigorous quality controls and consistency, they helped build trust between the new legal market and consumers.

In the early days of legalization, Broken Coast was one of only a handful of brands with a craft focus—compared to many that have jumped into the game today.

Broken Coast continues their legacy with their trending, fruity and minty Kush Mints and zesty and spicy Amnesia Haze flower.

Tribal

Tribal's craft cannabis appears on our bestseller lists month after month with smash hits like their Cuban Linx. With a careful touch to cultivation—think indoor grown, hang-dried, hand-trimmed, and never irradiated—Tribal is setting a gold standard in a green world.

Tribal's pheno-hunting program searches for the next hype genetics. They aim to hunt over 1000 phenotypes every year to find the latest and greatest weed to add to their catalog. Their focus is on bringing their stellar genetics to as many formats as possible for you to explore, including flower, pre-roll, live resin concentrates and vapes, and soon to come, infused pre-rolls.

It's not just about breeding the next big hit: it's about pushing cannabis towards new horizons. Tribal offers their high-quality catalog at eye-widening affordable prices, changing how we look at the divide between value-oriented and premium weed.

Fraser Valley

If you like to buy in bulk, Fraser Valley Weed Co's got your back. Harnessing the natural conditions of BC's Fraser Valley region in their massive greenhouses, they deliver on one simple concept: big bags, low price.

Fraser Valley Weed Co focuses on quality, bulk sizes, and consistent availability without the premium price tag. They hit the sweet spot between all three, with top sellers like their D.Burger and Strawberry Amnesia ounces.

Alongside their oz bags, Fraser Valley also offers half-oz milled flower in rotating strains, as well as their 20-pack Big Red joints, always at 20% THC or higher.

BOXHOT

BOXHOT has emerged as a trendsetter in Canadian weed. They were one of the first brands to introduce infused pre-rolls, which are now the largest growing category across the country. Following that same boundary-pushing mindset, BOXHOT released their 1.2g vape carts packed with 1000mg of THC, the legal limit for a single cart. Jump forward to today, and we're seeing more and more brands come out with 1.2g vapes, with BOXHOT's continually appearing on our top seller lists.

Their specialized vape hardware also stands out from the pack, built oversized to deliver big clouds and reduce clogging. Check out their new twist on the vape game, their 2g Cruise Control Nitro THC + CBG cart, made for a moderate experience and enhanced with 500mg of CBG.

San Rafael '71

San Rafael '71 is a titan from the early days of legal cannabis in Canada. They made a big first impression with their award-winning Tangerine Dream flower, a signature favourite that has stayed in their rotation to this day.

San Raf prides themselves on unique, proprietary genetics sourced from world-class breeding programs at their state-of-the-art facility in BC. After harvesting, all of San Raf's top-tier flower is hang-dried and carefully hand-packed to preserve the plant's natural flavours and aromas.

They let the genetics of their flower shine through in any format, like in their strain-specific gummies, available in live-resin and cured resin options. Check out their full-spectrum Sour Peach Gummies, infused with 100% Pink Kush live resin!

The Loud Plug

The Loud Plug are small but mighty: with a humble start, they've been able to make a big impact across Canada, with a presence in nearly every province. They're always innovating, from their bestselling Benny Bluntos, a mashup of blunts and an infusion of bubble hash, to their Terp Gusher pre-rolls, which introduced crushable, terpene-rich pearls in their filters for bursts of flavour.

Their authentic love for their home and what they do shines through their weed, like their With Love from Scarborough dried flower, which pays homage to their legacy and blue-collar roots.

Saying thank you

From big bulk bags to meticulous craft weed, these brands have helped shape the vibrant, exciting world of Canadian weed, helping to give us the incredible selection, quality, and stellar price-points we have today. They aren't just a part of the conversation—they're leading it, defining what it means to be a grower in Canada and beyond.

This 420, we tip our hats to them: thank you for all the weed you've grown, and what you're bringing us next.

Want to try out these brands for yourself? Pick them all up for UNBEATABLE prices at Canna Cabana!

What concentrate brands did consumers buy this month?

Normally consumed in dab rigs or vaporizers, concentrates are a highly potent form of cannabis, with THC levels far above dried flower. The most potent forms of concentrates include those like wax, shatter, THCa powder, or oils. Less potent forms include kief or hash, which are often paired with dried flower in bong and joints.

Tribal continues to be amongst the bestselling brands for live resin. Adults Only has put a popular spin on premium extracts with their liquid diamond dispensers.

March's bestselling dabbable concentrates

As consumers who use concentrates most often do so for their higher potency, the price-to-THC ratio remains important here. The bestselling concentrate brands have a variety of specific strain genetics, consistent quality, and offer several formats. The types of concentrates explored here are dabbable concentrates such as shatter, live resin, diamonds, and badder.

Who are the bestselling oil & capsule brands?

Cannabis oils and capsules are commonly used for their predictability. In this format, it's easy to choose an exact dosage of THC or other cannabinoids, most often CBD. They're also favoured with those looking for a smoke-free, prep-free, and discreet alternative. Cannabis oils are also popularly used for infused baking.

NuLeaf Naturals is a premium capsule and oil brand with full spectrum products featuring a range of rare cannabinoids.

March's bestselling oils & capsules

Oils and capsules represent a smaller customer base than formats like flower or edibles. They are most often chosen for their dosage, ease of use, and price, rather than flavour profile or strain genetics.
