Backyard Fun Giveaways!

The Ride Along Scooter

Featuring a sleek design and rich coloring, this scooter is a great way for kids to practice balance and get some physical activity in during playtime. Featuring clean lines and rounded edges reminiscent of vintage roadsters, this kid-friendly scooter has faux chrome accents and easy-grip handles.

This foot-powered scooter is high enough for toddlers to climb aboard and cruise to their destination all on their own. Made EverTough™, this vintage-style toddler car is uniquely indestructible, ready to outlast tons of playtime fun! Visit step2.com to learn more!

Sweetwater Playhouse

The Backyard Discovery Sweetwater all cedar wooden playhouse is fun for the whole family. Its front is adorned with flowerpot holders and a cute, hinged working half-door for simple and easy access. The snack window is great for serving up cool drinks on a summer day and all kinds of other play. Inside imaginations can soar with the play sink, stove, and cordless phone. Whether you've got one child or several, this playhouse will entertain for hours! Visit backyarddiscovery.com to learn more!

Disney Mickey Mouse Water Table

This fun water table by Delta Children is loaded with features and ways to play. Not only will your little one love splashing about with Mickey, but they'll also improve their fine motor skills, sharing skills, and their imagination as they explore all this activity table has to offer. The three-tier design can be used as a water table, sand, or sensory table. Plus, the table comes with a bucket, watering can, shovels, scoopers, sand molds, and character toys. When playtime is done, empty the water table with the convenient no-leak drain plug for easy clean-up and storage! Visit deltachildren.com to learn more!
