

The Best Toddler Chairs Of 2023

As much as toddlers want to play and run around, sometimes they want to sit back, relax and just chill out too. What better way to make them feel comfortable than with their very own pint-sized piece of furniture? Toddler chairs are designed to accommodate kids' miniature frames and tend to be lightweight enough for them to transfer around the house. Better yet, they should be stylish enough to be parked anywhere in your home. Your little one will love the endless hours of playing, reading, singing and watching shows from their own designated spot. Plus, it'll motivate them to sit down for more than five seconds, which is always a win in our book. If you're in the market for the very best chairs for toddlers, we've got your tushes covered with these top picks.

We're loving this snuggly toddler chair from Delta. The sofa-like seating for tots 18 months and older is the perfect cozy spot for them to settle in with a book or movie. Its lightweight design means you (or even your kiddo) can pick it up and move it from room to room, and the seat cover is removable for easy machine washing. It's reminiscent of the ever-popular Anywhere Chair from Pottery Barn—but at half the price! Talk about a budget-friendly chair for a toddler.
