Searching for a Moses basket bassinet that doubles as a bedside sleeper? While this option isn't a traditional design (read: it's not an Instagram post waiting to happen!), it offers plenty of convenient features. The two-in-one Moses basket with stand allows parents to have baby by their side during the day; at night, they can securely attach it to the base to create a bedside sleeper. What's more, it has wheels and a mesh storage element for toys or anything else you need to have handy. Last but not least, you can rest assured knowing that this sleeper is JPMA-certified.

What We Love

- CPSC- and JPMA-certified
- Versatile 2-in-1 design that comes with a stand
- Has wheels for easy portability
- Features a convenient storage element

Things To Consider

- Not made from all-natural materials like other options
