A photograph of several Amala Earth gift boxes arranged on a dark wooden shelf. The boxes are made of light brown, textured paper and feature the brand name 'amala earth' in a simple, lowercase font. The boxes vary in size and are positioned in a row, with some slightly overlapping. In the background, there are several large, vibrant pink roses in a vase, adding a touch of natural beauty to the scene. The lighting is soft and warm, highlighting the texture of the boxes and the petals of the roses.
