FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

If I want my order delivered to each employee/client, how does this work?

Simply send us a spreadsheet with accurate names & addresses and we will ensure that each hamper or gift will be accurately labelled and delivered within your specified timeframe. For further details, please feel free to get in touch with us.

If I order in bulk, does each hamper need to be the same?

Certainly not! Each order can be customised with a variety of hamper products & types, allowing you to tailor your selection to various budgets & preferences. Additionally, we accommodate most dietary needs, including options for vegan & gluten free requirements.

If we want a bespoke packaging, can you design it?

We have the tools and skills to create custom packaging tailored to the type of product you choose. Please note there is a minimum order quantity for personalised packaging designs. You are encouraged to contact us with your ideas.

Can you hold our order until just before Christmas?

Absolutely! We'd be delighted to receive your orders well in advance & store them until your preferred delivery date. You can select the shipping date either on our website or by email when placing your order.
