

AADA

COLLECTION

| À | G | A | culture

In Victorian times, giving a hibiscus meant that the giver was acknowledging the receiver's delicate beauty. In the same way, we acknowledge that each and every one of us has a delicate beauty waiting to be acknowledged. In the newest line of products from AGA CULTURE, we are asking you to acknowledge that delicate beauty in yourself. How can you both be the giver and the receiver for the beauty within? Are you ready to let the playfulness within you blossom?

Adaa is Aga's culture first clothing collection, full of colour and inspirations. This time, Moyo has collaborated with Adekepemi, a multi-media artist, on a collection inspired by Moyo's Childhood, dreams made up of endless strings of Hibiscus flowers and freehand drawings to while away the days in Ibadan.

The bright colours of bustling Ibadan street markets and pulsating rhythms of Lagos informed the colour palette as well as the calm nostalgic spirit of childhood days roaming in hibiscus garden, drawing the simple shapes, architectural lines, and bold colors reflect the notion of "clothing as art" and 'clothing as a story board'.
