

Draw It!

Your spaceship lands with a thud on a new planet. You are the first Earthling there and it's scary, but exciting too. The hatch creaks open and you catch a glimpse of the planet for the first time. Draw yourself exploring this new planet. What do you do? What do you see?

ABOUT

Hopscotch GIRLS

Hopscotch Girls is a social enterprise dedicated to empowering girls. We believe in strong female role models, reinforcing a healthy body image, inspiring confidence, and encouraging STEM (science, technology, engineering and math) skills. Our books are designed to lift girls up. Available on Amazon.com.
