

Discreet Shipping

Designed with your privacy in mind, every step of the way.

We believe in every woman's right to discover her body on her own terms, to find out what she likes and what she doesn't, no matter what stage of her sexual journey she is on.

Privacy and confidentiality are crucial to this, which is why they are at the forefront of everything we do and we have taken thoughtful steps to ensure that.

External Packaging

- The name Mauj does not appear anywhere on the product or on its box. Instead, the box is labeled as a beauty product.
- Deem's box does not contain any instructions on how to use the product, making its ultimate purpose our little secret.
- Also included in the packaging is a beautiful drawstring pouch to keep your Deem safe and discreet.

Shipping

- The name Mauj does not appear as the sender's name on your package.
- The shipping envelope does not include any information on Mauj.

Created with Care

Keeping Deem discreet is important to us, which is why we've designed the packaging and shipping process to reveal as little information as possible.

Deem was designed with your body in mind. Its shape was also purposefully intended not to attract any unwanted attention.

Invoice and Payment

- The purchase invoice is issued under another brand name, with no mention of Mauj.
- Another name will appear on your debit or credit card receipt instead of Mauj.

Mauj is here to help you discover your body safely and to provide you with the support and assistance that you need. If you have any additional questions or concerns that were not answered here or in our FAQs, please don't hesitate to reach out to us.
