

MR LISTER'S

BACK IN TOWN!

HEY QUIZ SLINGERS!

Mr Lister here. The sheriff tells me that you're all having to stay at home because of some lowdown, good-for-nothing bug. So to cheer you all up, here is a copy of Mr Lister 1, which the local stores don't sell no more.

If you haven't played before, here's what you gotta do.

1. One person reads the cards, the rest split into two teams.
 2. The Question Master reads out a question.
 3. Teams take it in turns to fire off an answer.
 4. Get one right and that's a hit.
 5. Get one wrong and it's a miss.
 6. After you've each had three shots at the answers, add up the hits.
 7. The team with the most hits wins a point.

8. If it's a tie, then both teams must face-off in the Last Chance Saloon by answering the impossible question. They each write down an answer, then reveal it at the same time. Whoever gets closest to the answer, wins the point.

10. The first team to win ten points is the winner.

11. Yeehaw!
