

Editor's Pick: Tesla surfboard, Striking steak knives and an electric Harley-Davidson

From engraved to steak knives, to a watch that jumps in time — this is what we want this week...

Words: Anna Galbraith

Allow me to extend our warmest congratulations on reaching the end of another working week. The weekend is upon us, all flushed with the promise of some welcome milder temperatures, and the chance to escape the city in the pursuit of pleasure.

So, whether you're looking for the best surfboard on the market to hit the waves, the top spot for an out-of-the-ordinary date night, or an exquisite fountain pen to attend to your business affairs before next week hits — we've got you covered.

Take a look through GJ's selection of the best buys on the market in this week's Editor's Pick.

Cook up a storm: Florentine Kitchen Knives steak knife mixed limited edition

This limited edition of the Florentine Kitchen Knives steak knives set are sure to impress your dinner guests this weekend. Available in sets of 4 or 6 — the knives can be made even more enviable with the option to engrave the blade when you purchase through the Florentine website

Florentine Steak Knife Set

£430

BUY NOW