

Green home on a budget

Flying Tiger Copenhagen says 'welcome home' with a collection of eco-friendly products that don't cost a fortune.

The end of summer is full of new beginnings, so why not welcome in September by refreshing your home? We're giving you a taste of the Scandi style and inviting nature inside – and, guess what, you can afford it too!

The home collection offers a smoke-coloured glass vase and a bouquet of everlasting dried flowers, together they'll brighten up your autumn home. A stripy doormat made from coconut fibres and natural latex and brass-coloured cutlery for two are other affordable must-haves just for you.

Available online and in our stores from September, prices from €2
